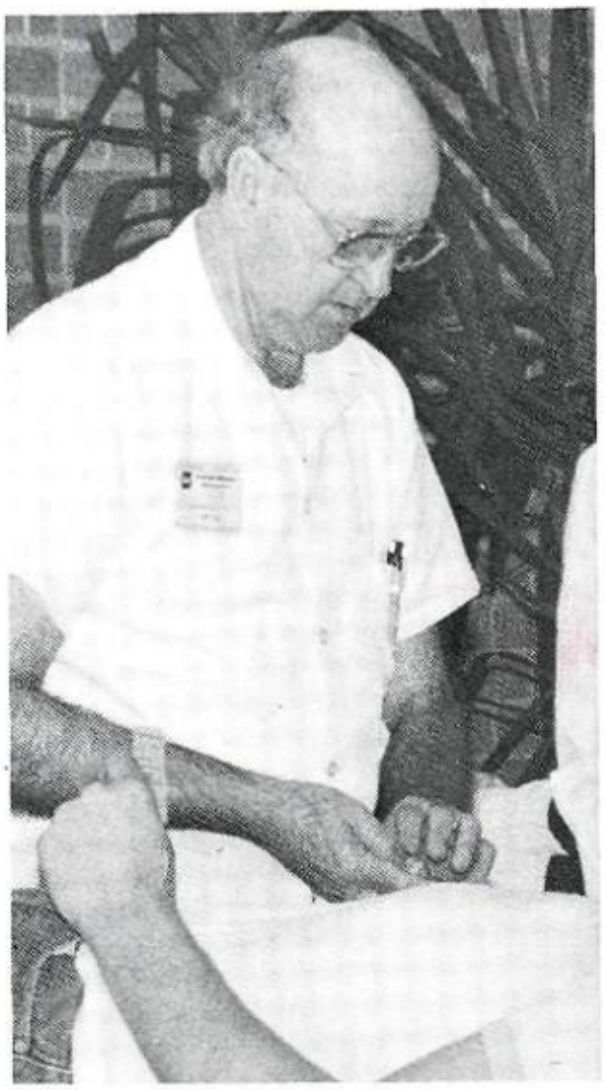
Memorable Times!

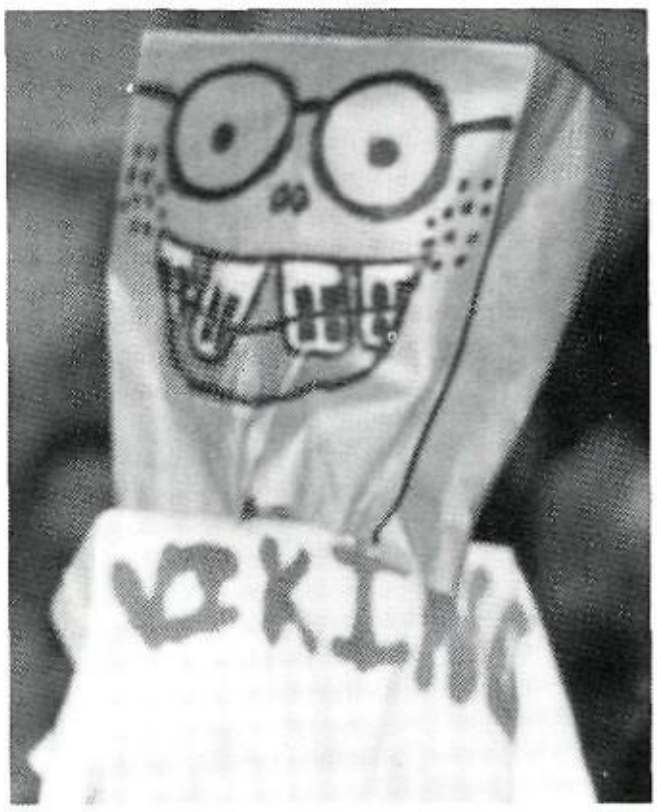
The 1987-88 school year was a time for spirit. Throughout the year, students attended many pep rallies. Pep rallies were fun for everyone. They included class competition, class rivalry between seniors and freshmen, and routines by the cheerleaders, drill team, and Drama Club

It was a special time for everyone when the student body, faculty, coaches, players, and entire community adopted the NNNNNGU slogan and never gave up!



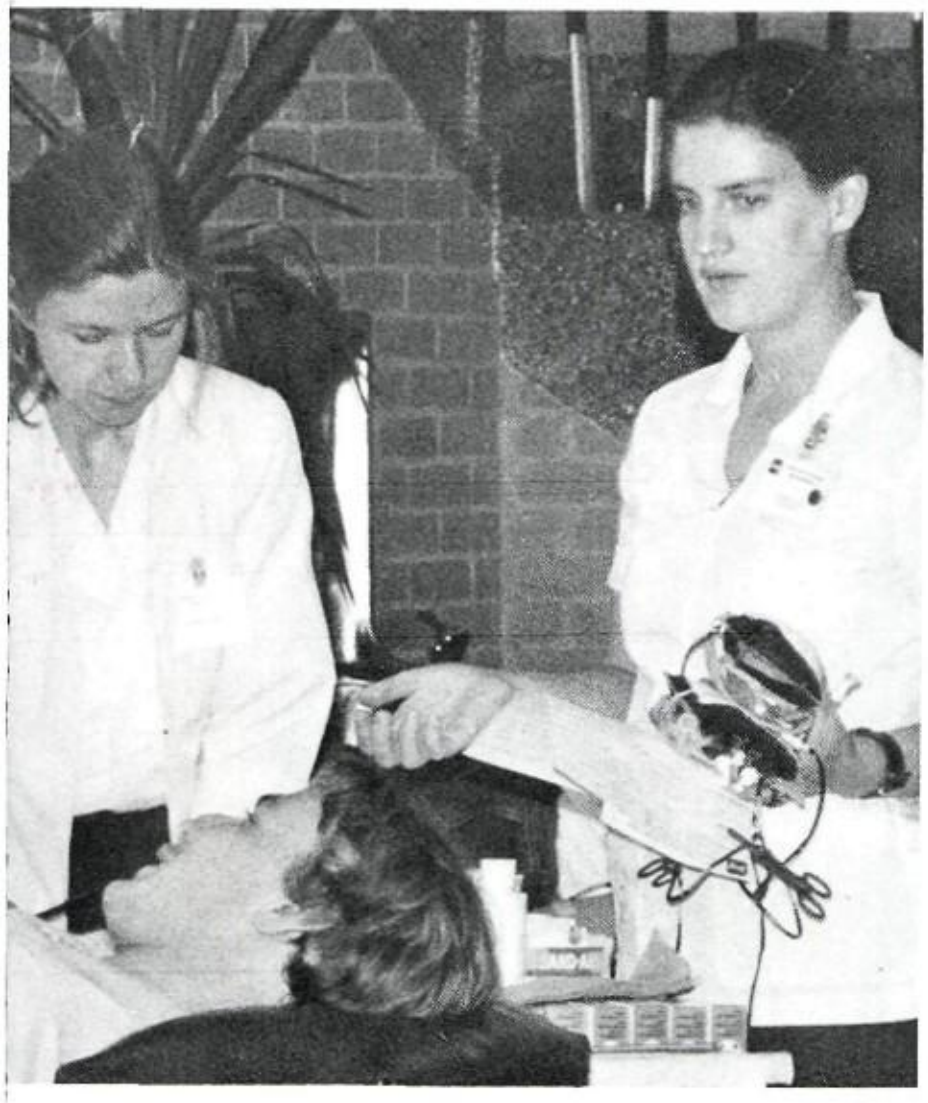
Student Council sponsored its bi-annual blood drive in which senior, Craig Turner, donated blood to the Oklahoma Blood Institute.

Spirited seniors worked to create their version of an opponent's mascot.



Expressing their spirit before the Bixby game are Mike Brown, John Payne, and Jonathon Hosch.

The student body participates in an as sembly commemorating the Constitution



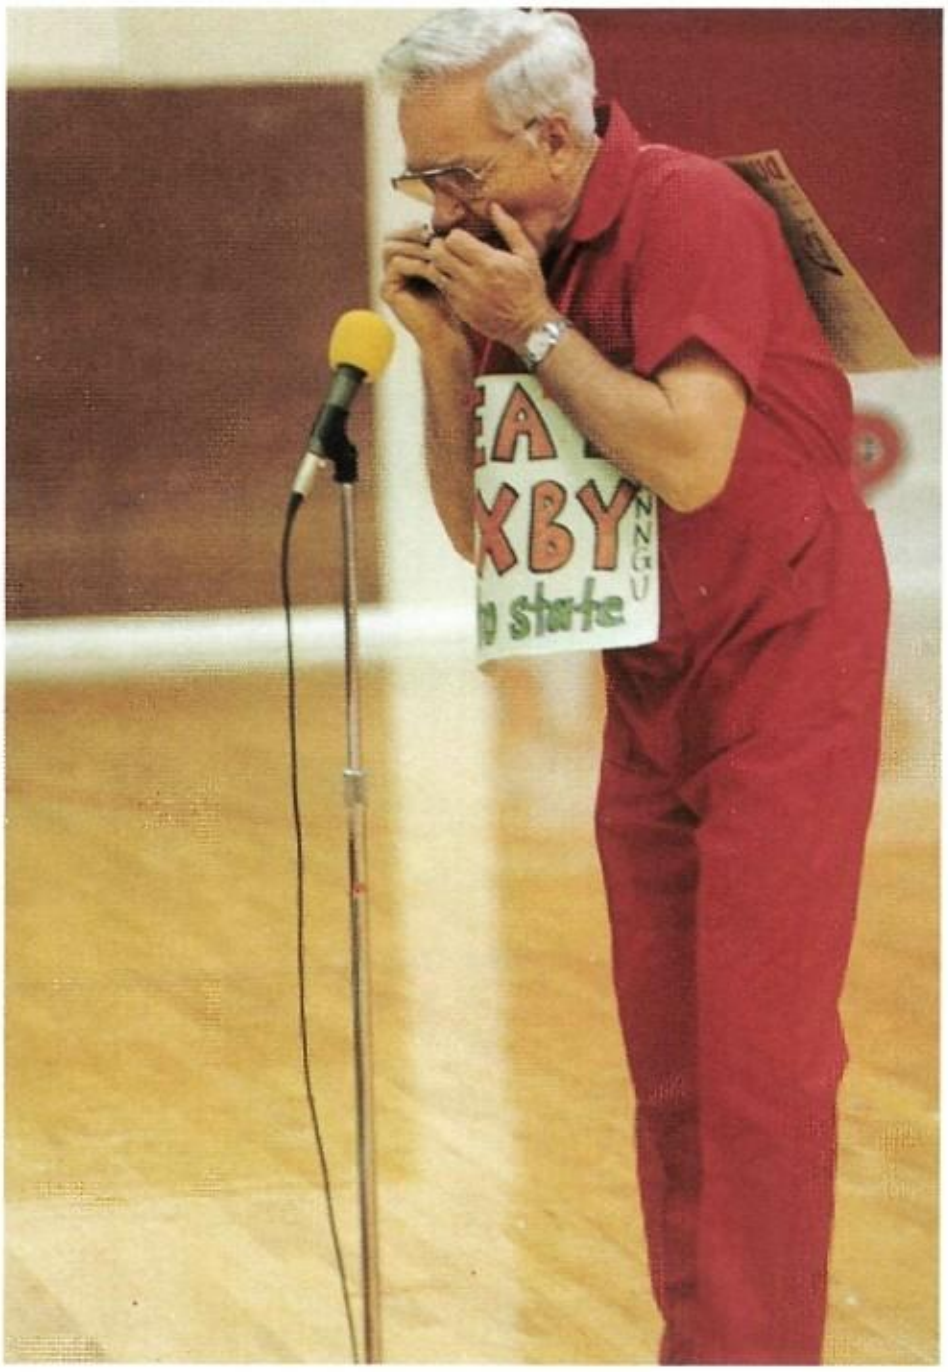
Sophomores, Sandy Garrison and Jana Perkins, carry on the Demon Spirit at the quarter final pep rally.

Band members watch eagerly as the cheerleaders perform at the pep rally.

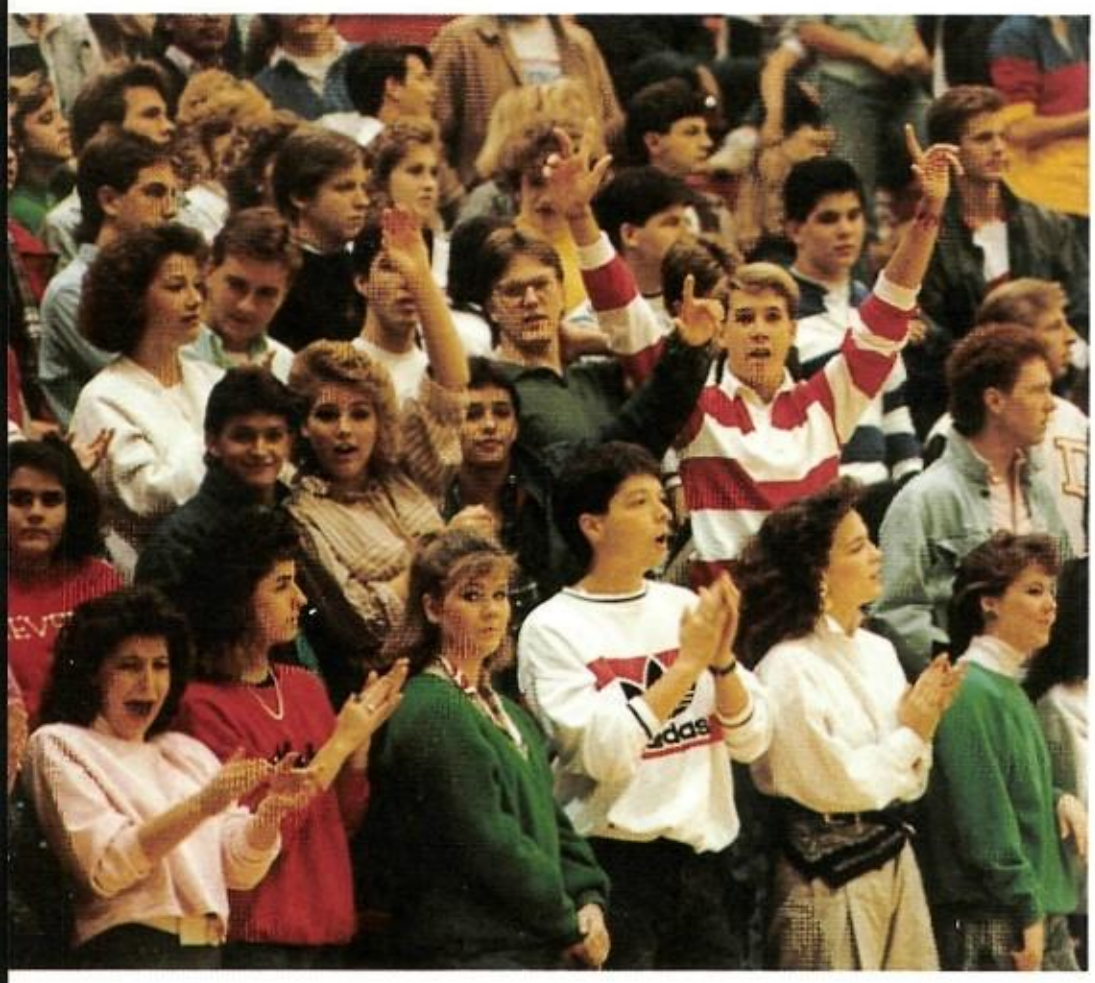
Checking out the Pitchfork are seniors Shannon Spruiell and Brett Reding.

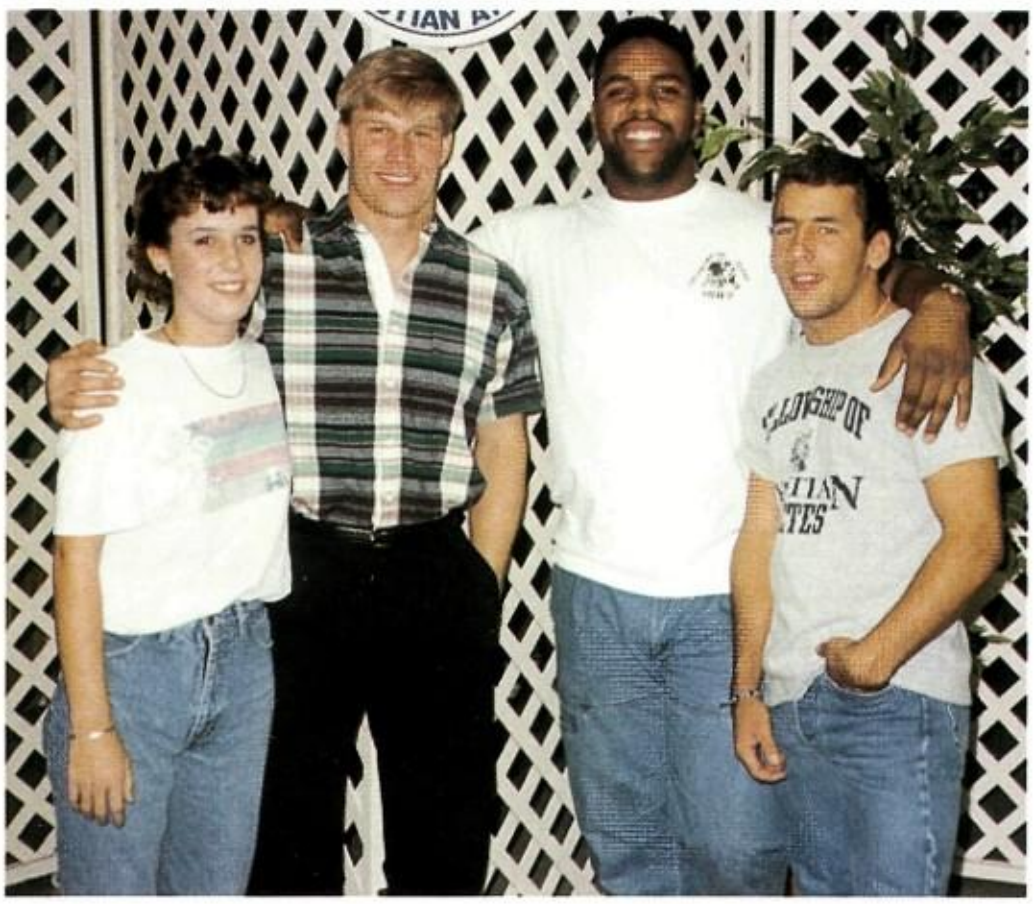
Colorful Times!

Science teacher Marion Nottingham plays the Alma Mater on his harmonica at the Bixby pep rally.



Showing their spirit at the pep rally is the Junior Class.





Speakers at an F.C.A. meeting, OU football players Todd Thompson and Caesar Rente, pose with F.C.A. presidents Leigh Anne Apple and Darrel Martin.

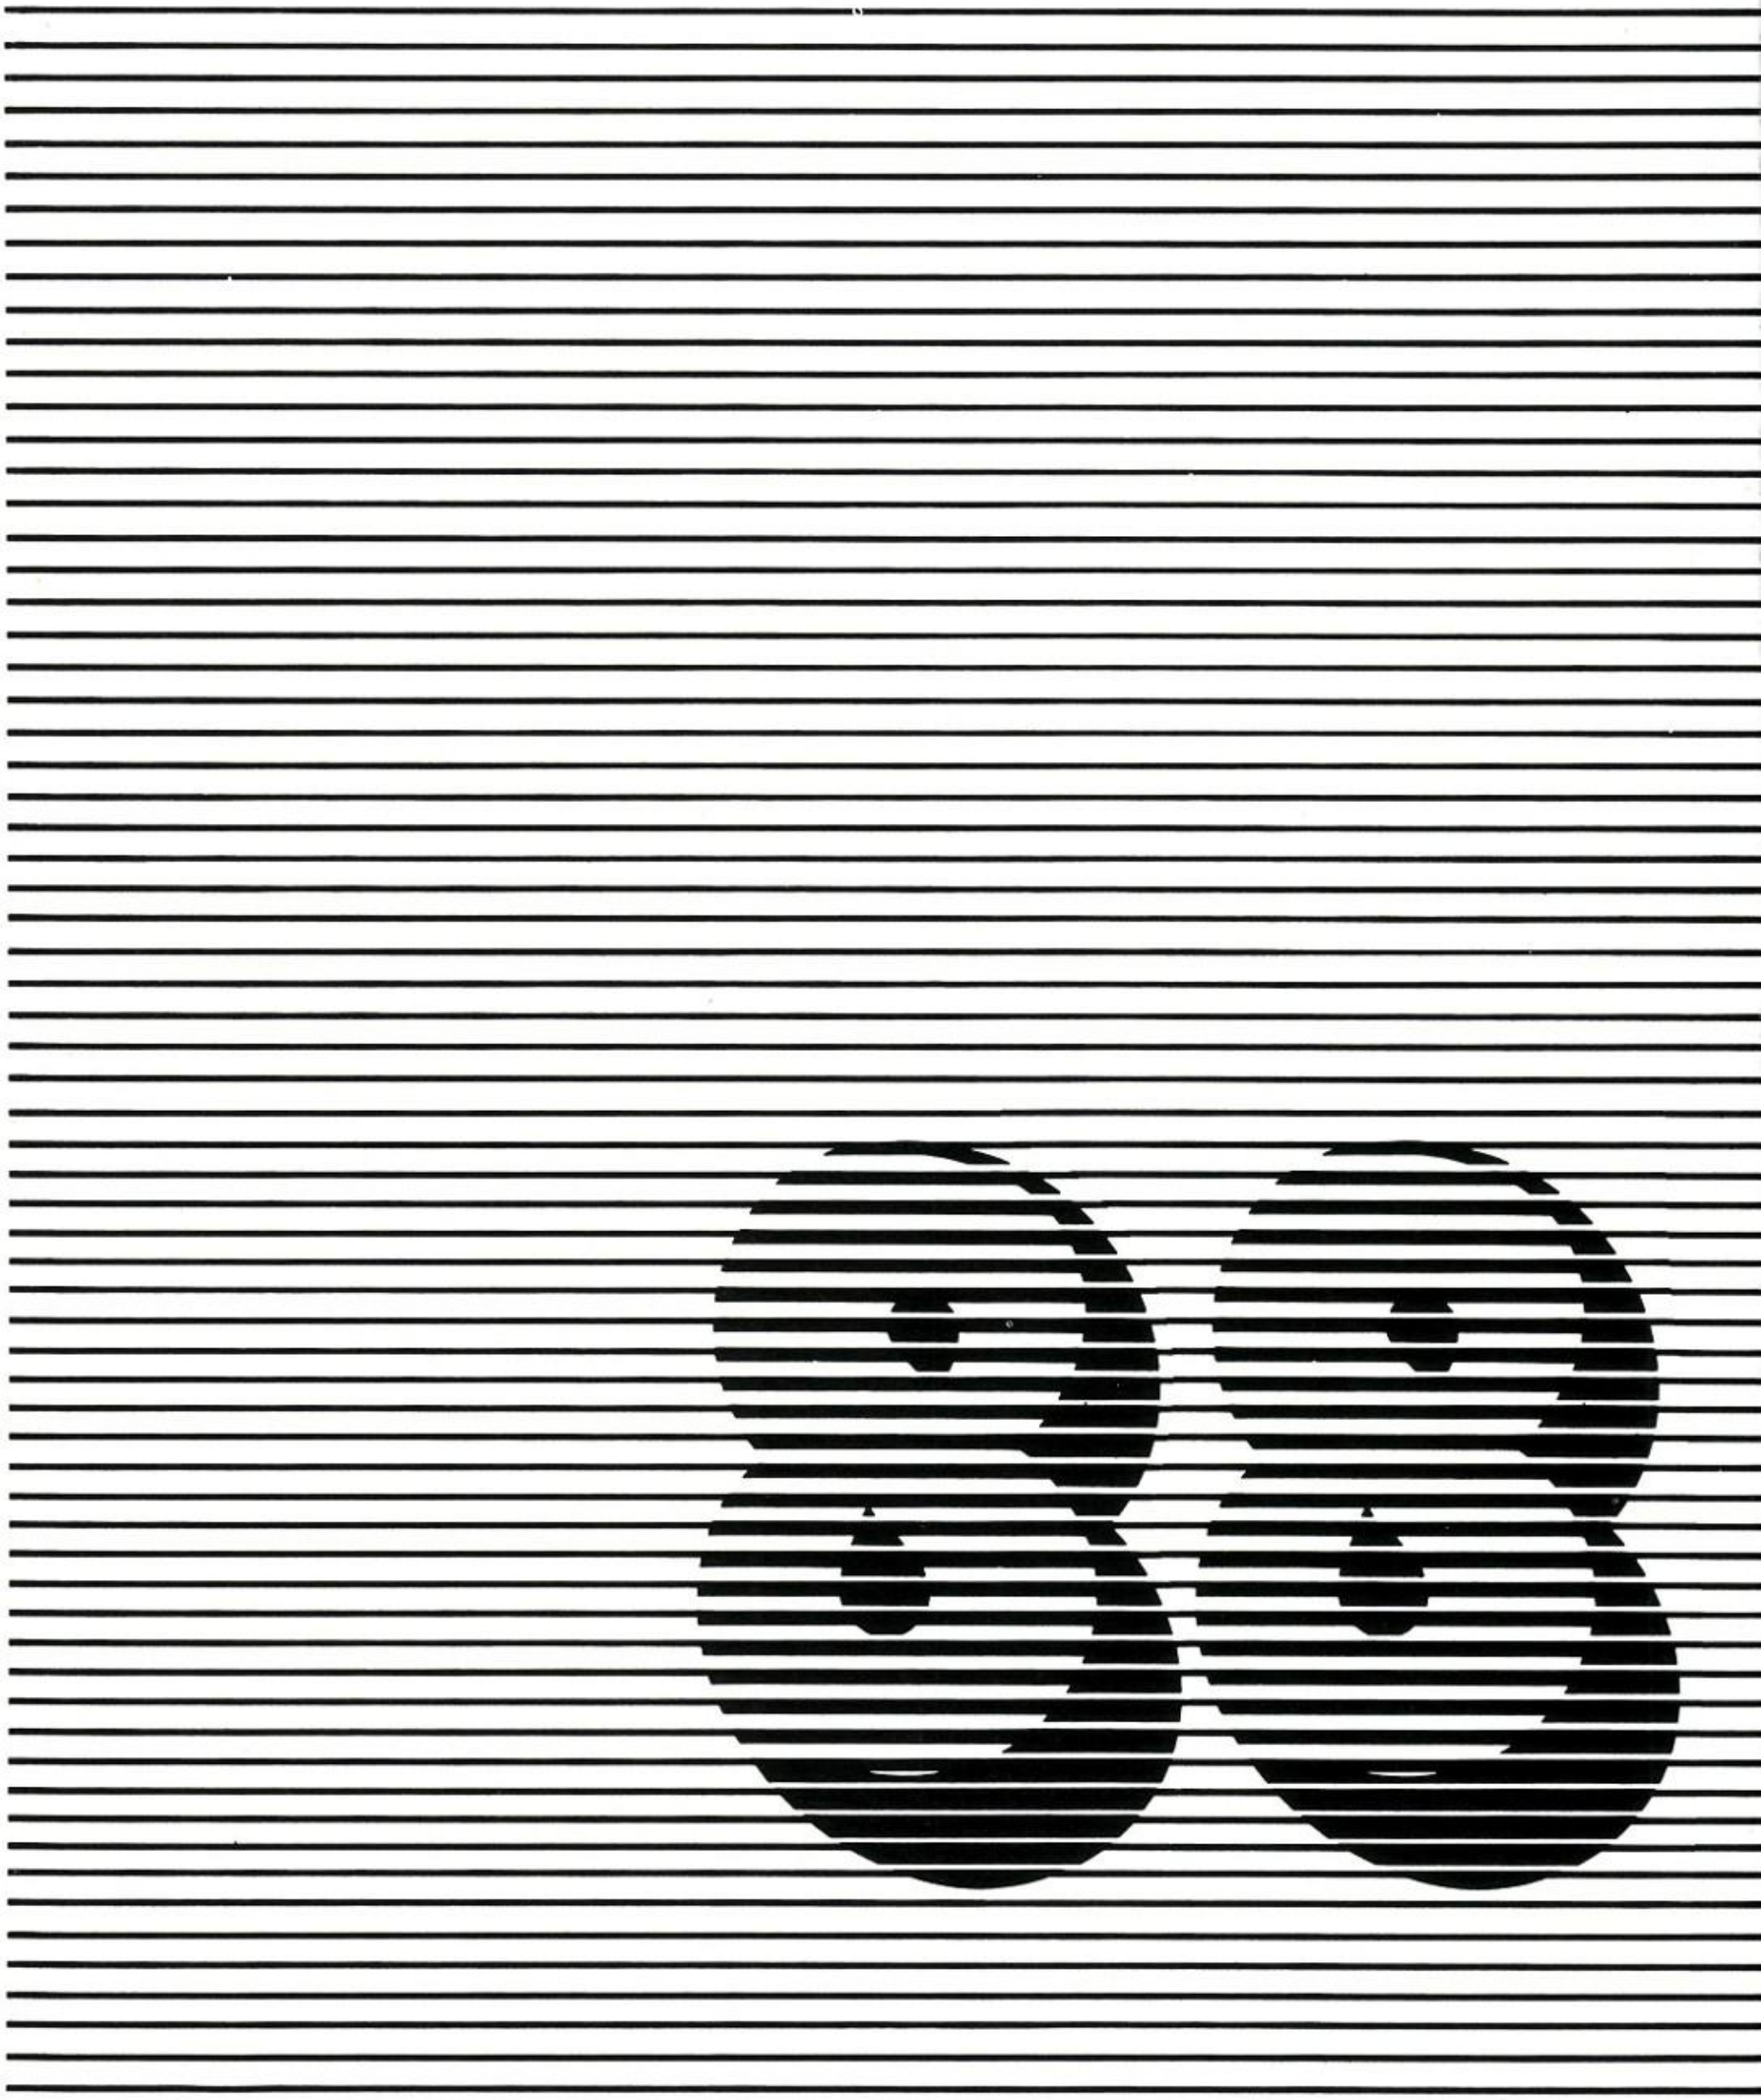
Assistant principals John Hopper and Steve Cleveland wear football jerseys to show their school spirit!

A momentous occasion, assistant principal Steve Cleveland's 40th birthday was further cause for celebration at a playoff pep rally.



STUDENT LIFE

Fall! A Time For Fun

Class rivalry was welcomed back into the pep rallies. Seniors and freshmen showed their class spirit by making signs and yelling chants across the gym. Class rivalry made the pep rallies fun for everyone.

Students participate in class competition at a football pep rally.

Seniors show their spirit by participating in the wave at a pep rally.

Hollie Dixon, Pam Schmidt, and Jill Lang study agenda during a break at the OIPA Yearbook Conference held on the OU campus.

Kristen Schreiner puts up signs on the billboards outside of town to let the Bixby Spartans know how far away from home they are.

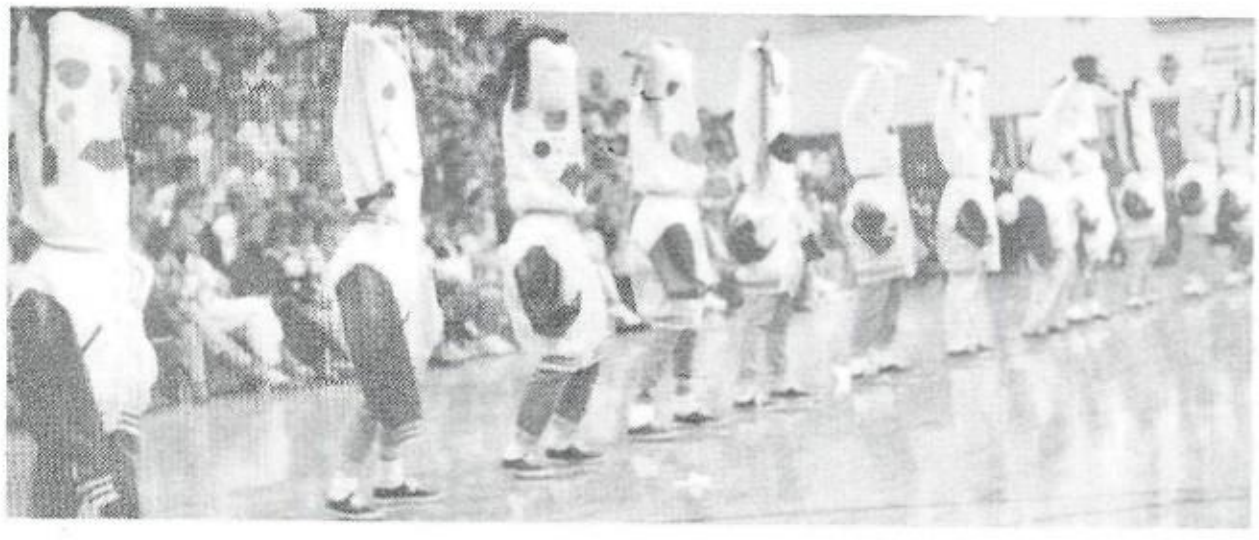
DECA President, Amye Couch, selects fashions from Rags Inc. to model in the fashion show.

During the homecoming parade, the juniors showed much needed spirit to beat the Chicks. Their hard work paid off when they won "The Most Spirited Class" award.

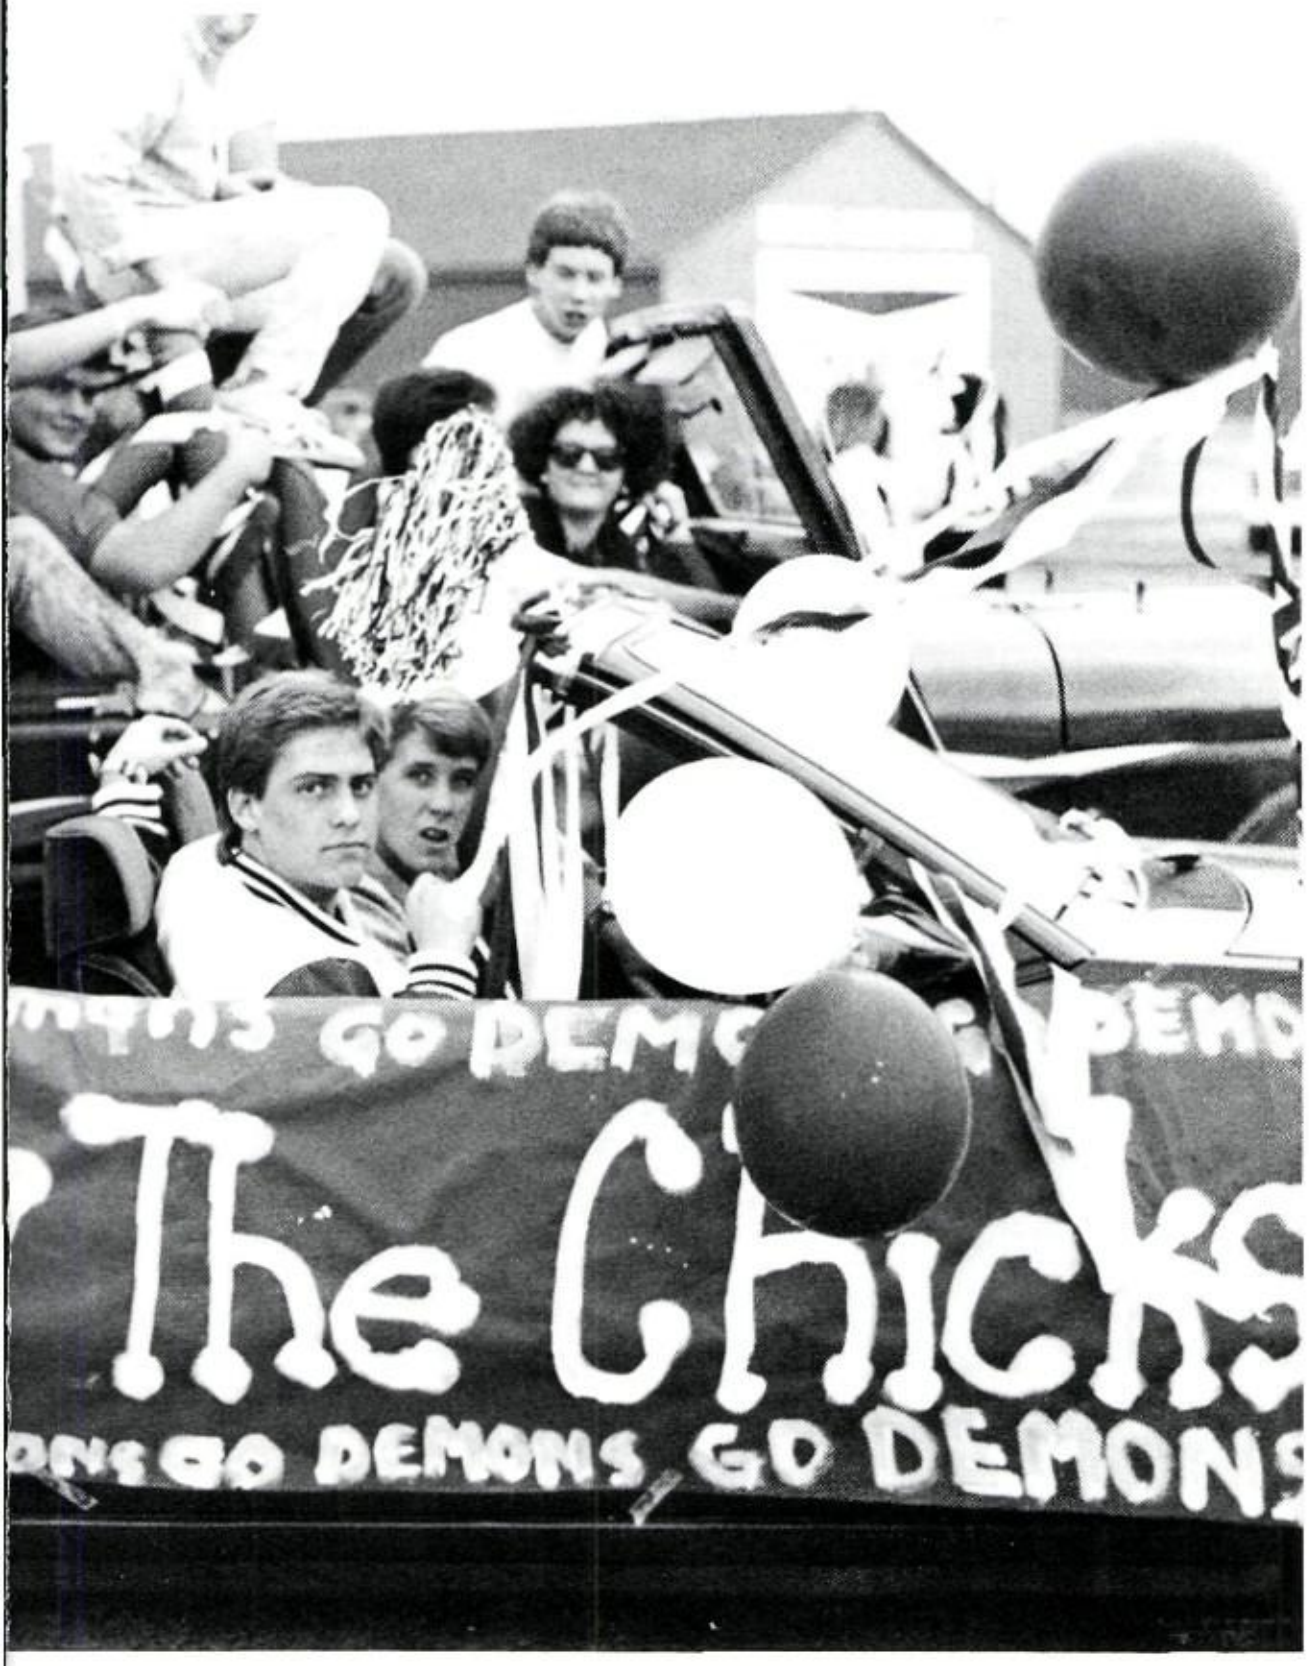
The Demon football season was brought to its peak with the triumph of beating the Chickasha Chicks during the homecoming game. There was much excitement before and after the victory. The glorious event started with a bonfire, followed by a pep rally, then with the annual homecoming parade. During the game's halftime show Pam Schmidt was crowned homecoming queen. After the victory there was a homecoming dance in the Student Center. Many people still remember that we "FRIED THE CHICKS."

Homecoming candidates: (l-r) Terri Travis, Tracey Ludwick, Pam Schmidt, and Tammy Dobbs show excitement before the halftime show. Very happy Pam Schmidt became homecoming queen.

During the homecoming pep rally, the Sparklers show their excitement as the Pillow People.



Chicks "Fry" At Homecoming



High spirited are Stacy Coe, Stephanie Drake, and Kevin Gregston at the bonfire.

Showing their letters, the junior class get all fired up during the pep rally.

Lockers found in fashion. Students find decorating their lockers "a thing to do" for something new.

Amye Couch, senior, achieves the total look in fashion as she prepares to choose a Coca Cola Watch. Wearing a straight denim skirt and red turtle neck under a woven sweater, Amye accents her attire with a red sash.

Wal-Mart brought many students in for shopping. Enjoying themselves as they select a Rugby in school colors are seniors Pam Schmidt and Jenna Jones.

TRENDS 88

The most "in" clothes now have become "faded," "acid," or "stonewashed" jeans. Many students agree that this is definitely it.

Enjoying herself while looking at the latest style in watches is Ms. Tracy Perry, business teacher.

Eric Wins Crossman

Every year five talented and deserving seniors are chosen as Crossman nominees by teachers, and the winner is determined by the vote of the student body. Eric Newberry received the Crossman Award at the annual awards assembly on May 18.

Chosen for the Crossman Award is Eric Newberry.

Eric receives award from principal Larry David.

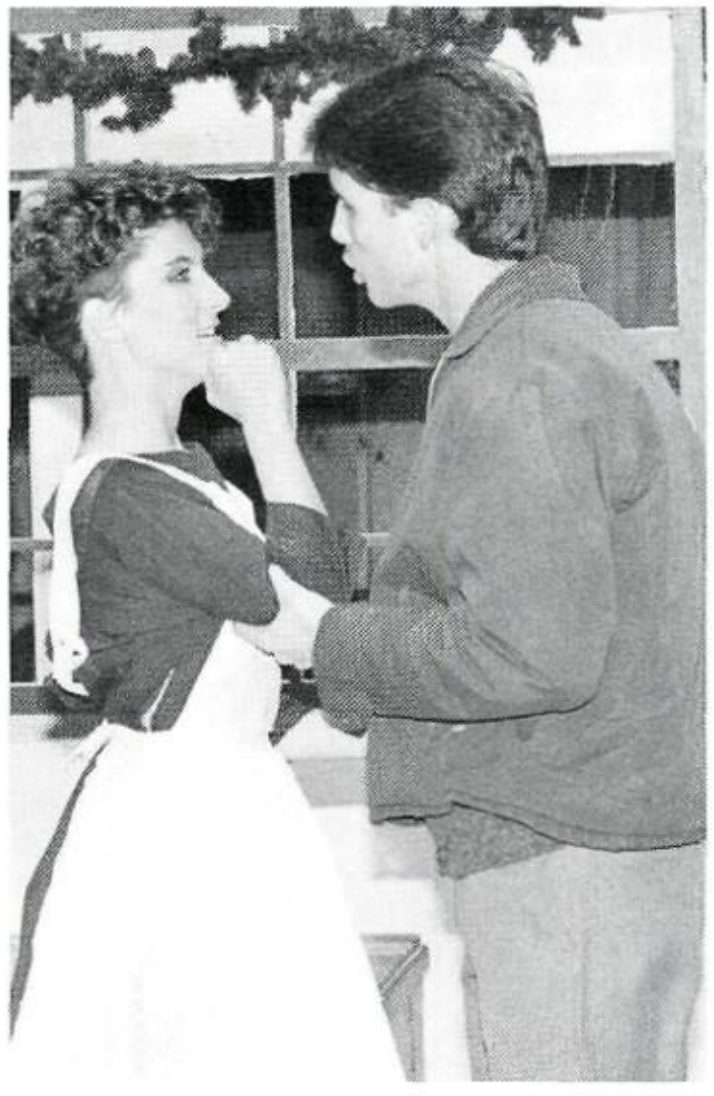
Crossman nominees are Steve Hale, Michael Elliott, Eric Newberry, Robin Bradley, and Keith Carl.

The Christmas Cradle

The Christmas play was presented by the Drama Department. In the play, a young teenage girl named Magdela has a child whose father, Heinrick, takes the baby to a convent and leaves him with nuns. Magdela is shunned and ostracized by the village people because she has no husband. Nevertheless, the priest chooses Magdela's house as the most worthy, and finally her child is returned. The lead role was shared by senior, Cyndy McGarr; and sophomore, Stacey Coe. Acting as the cruel father, Heinrick, was Russell High, senior.

A happy reunion is provided by the return of Magdela's baby.

Director Denise Hines gives last minute instructions during the dress rehearsal.



Heinrick refuses daughter Magdela's request for the return of her baby.

You Can't Take It With You

Four long weeks of practice, an extremely well built set, and a very dedicated cast - that about sums up You Can't Take It With You. A comedy in three acts, You Can't Take It With You, was presented May 4th and 5th by the Drama Department, under the direction of Denise Hines, drama, speech, and freshmen English teacher.

The story revolves around a semi-well off, and semi-crazy family who believe in only having fun. Their "unreasonable" ways interfere with their daughter, Alice, and her boyfriend's struggle to wed.

The story was written by George Kaufman and Moss Hart. It takes place in New York City during the 1940's.

Cast members (top) bow for a word of prayer before dinner.

Debating the differences in their family values are Mrs. Kirby played by Missy Piercy, junior, and Mrs. Sycamore played by Stacey Sykes, senior.

A Night In Venice . . .

The prom was held April 30th in the Student Center. The theme was "A Night in Venice," and the band was "The Blades." To raise money for the prom the junior class sold suckers, t-shirts, and key chains to make a memorable night for everyone.

Rockin' the night away are junior Clint Corley and senior Pam Schmidt.

Senior girls get together for a memorable party pic.

A Night To Remember

Kevin Laukhuf and Tim Buben, seniors, take a break from the dance floor to check out the food.

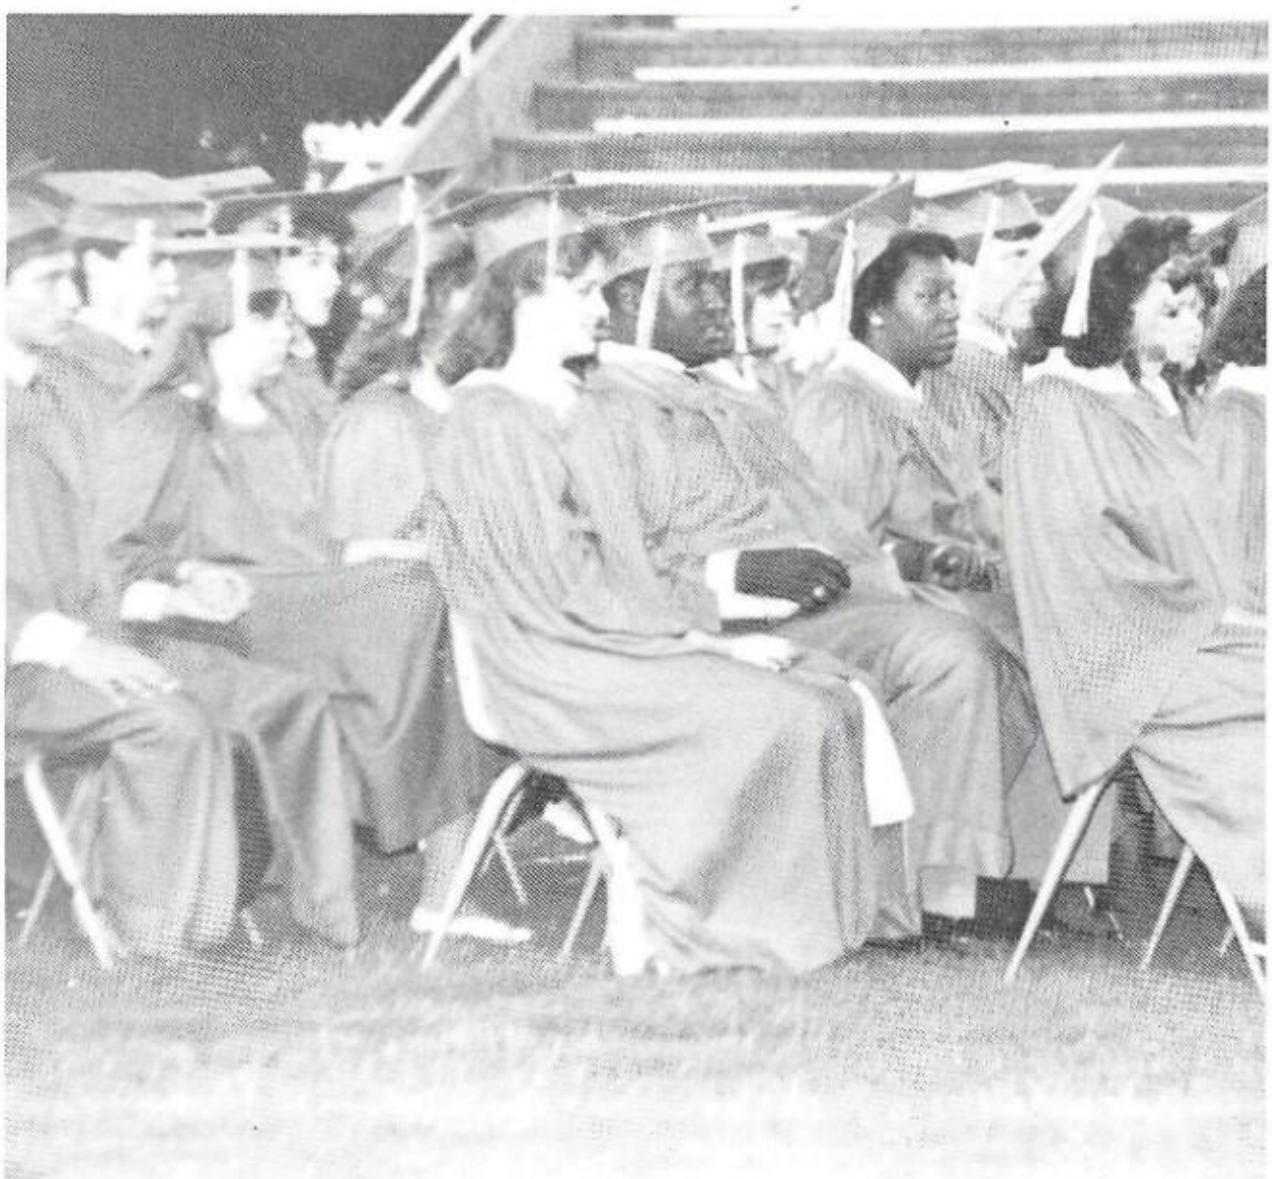
The Blades, an OKC based band, sing "Keep Your Hands to Yourself", a popular selection.

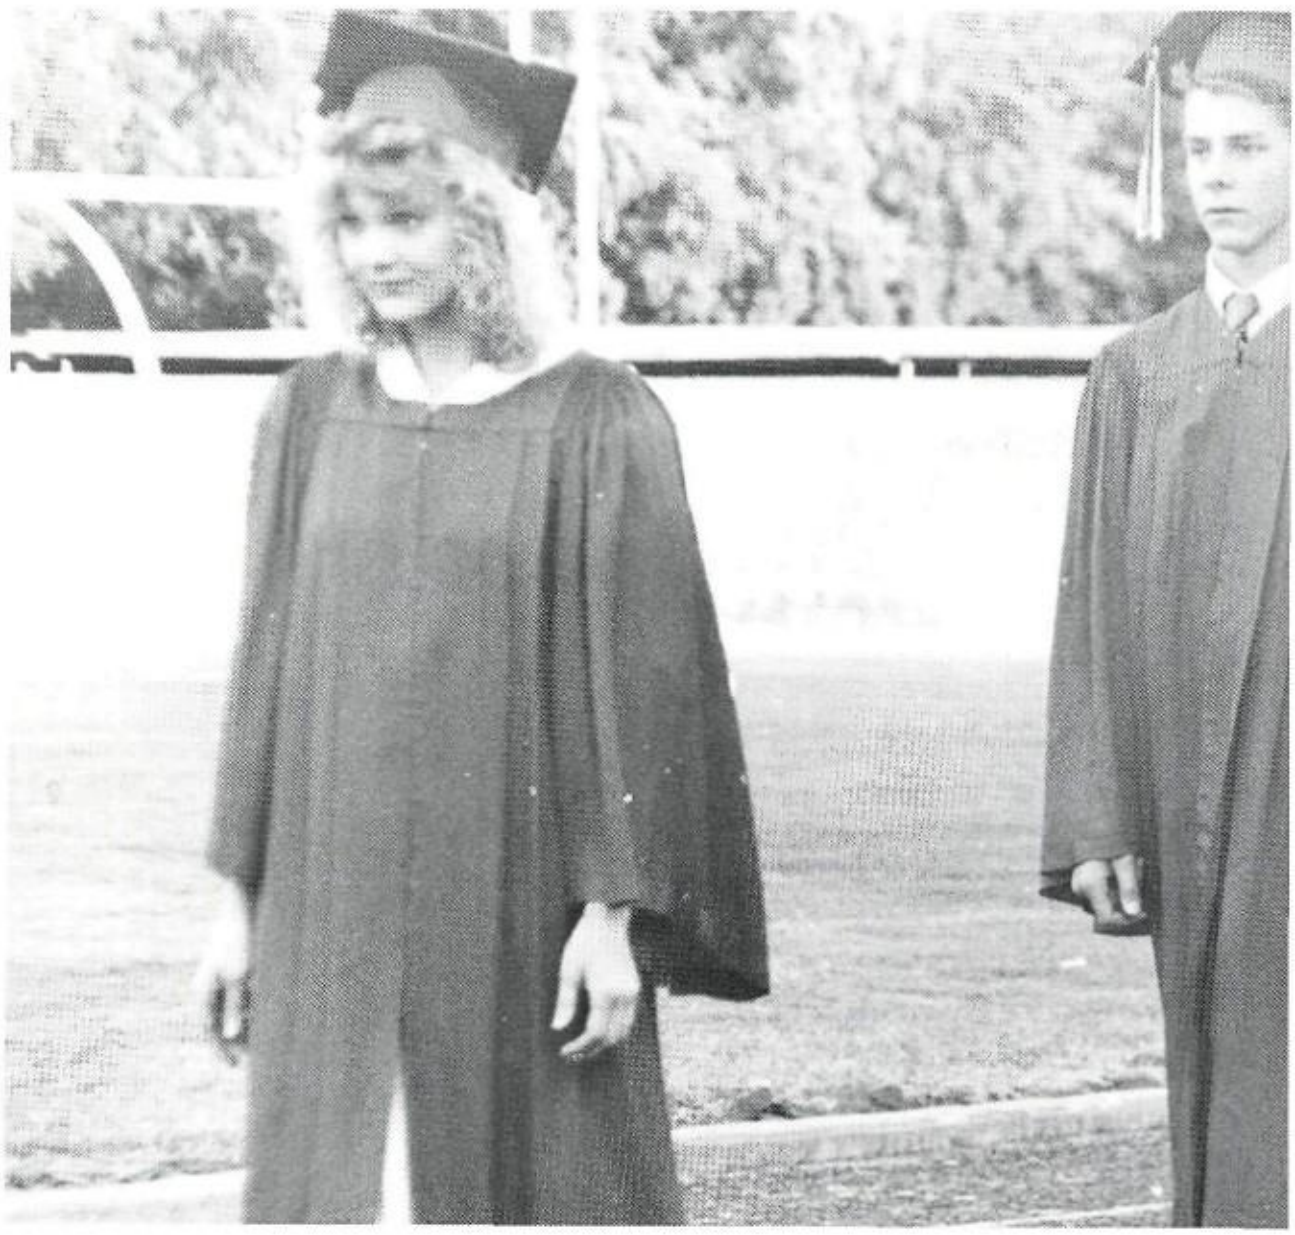
Enjoying "A Night in Venice" is senior, Gina Hardy.

Graduation '88

"Believe in your dreams; Believe in yourself; Believe in life," was the theme for the Senior Class of 1988. The Commencement Program was led by Keith Carl and Michelle Irwin. The guest speaker was Mr. T.C. Hardesty, Oklahoma Association of Student Council Executive Director. The senior class sponsors were June Richardson and Elizabeth Grooms. The flowers and stage decorations were courtesy of Goodner's Flower Shop. The 219 graduating Seniors received diplomas presented by Superintendent, Jack Atchley.

The Senior Class of 1988 is bound together by joining hands.



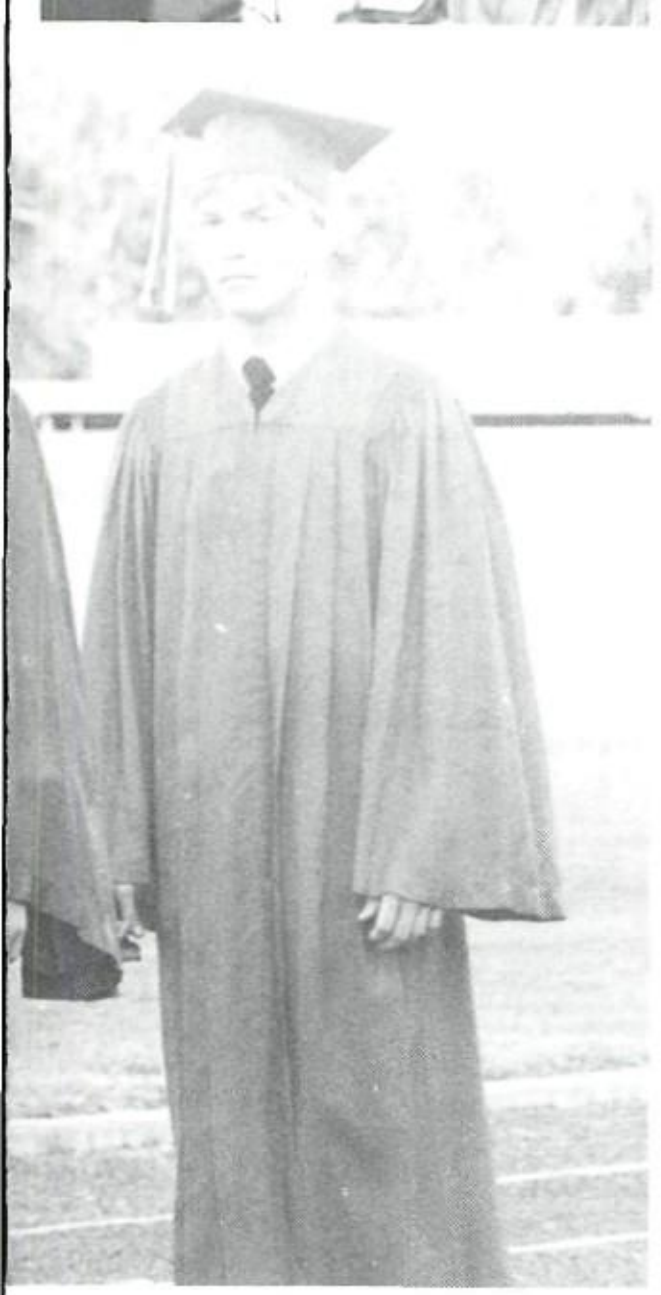


Guest speaker T. C. Hardesty speaks to the Senior Class on their future endeavors.

Marching in for Commencement are Tonya Star, Trey Sotut, and Bobby Stovall.

Receiving his diploma from Superintendent Jack Atchley is Todd Porter.

Senior Chorus sings "It's Time for Movin' On".



School board members watch as graduates march in.

Demons Never Give Up

"Never Giving Up" was more than a phrase to the Demons and the citizens of this town. With a joint effort and a lot of self confidence, this team went up against the odds and for a few fleeting moments were at the top of the world, until a heart breaking loss in the state finals brought them back down to earth. The Demons never gave up, and in the end what more can one ask from a group of young men?

Kicking a game winner, senior, Danny David, earns his spot as one of the state's best kickers. He kicked, what is believed to be a modern-day school record 48-yard field goal.

JV Finishes Strong

The JV team had a great season, improving every game. They brought their starting record of 0-2 back up to 4-3 by the end of the season. The entire team felt it was a tremendous success. They learned that just because you start out bad, it doesn't mean you can't improve. The coaches felt that it was a productive year. Coach Chuck Croy said, "They played well, had good attitudes, and had determination. The highlight of their season was when they beat the #1 Class A Grandfield varsity team.

Taking an angle on an Altus ball carrier, junior Dude Sandford prepares to put the runner in the dirt.

Making an open field tackle, sophomore, Clifton Bonney, stops the Altus player from making big yardage.

Victorious Season For Frosh

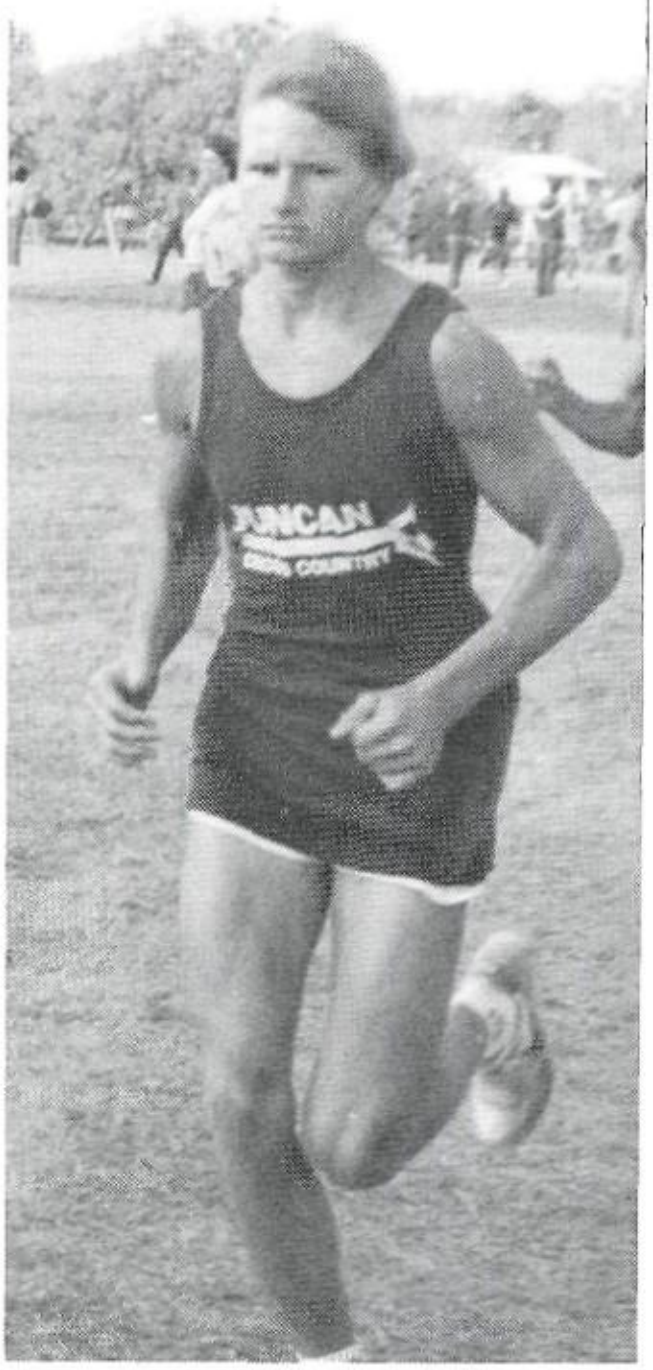
The freshmen had a good year, finishing with a 6-2 record for the season. The team was under the direction of Jerry Frieouf, Bruce Gahagan, and Mike Evans. Coach Frieouf said, "We had a lot of talented kids that did really well. They were quick and competitive." They placed 2nd in the Great Plains Conference.

After a successful 4th down stand against Lawton Central, the Freshmen Demons regroup for their own offensive possession.

1987 Duncan Cross-Country: Chris Roe, Eric Flanders, Dace Page, Martin Wollman, John Glenn, Todd Ingle, Jay Crabb, Jonathan Hosch, David Marcotte, David Kendrick, Amy Harlow, Stephanie Estes, Bill Twelves, Pat Jackson, Sandy Sloot, Ken Klechka, Shawn Maher, Royce Townsend, Jason Smith, Tommy Stokes, Billy Annear, Tracy Streich, Roxanne Lockwood, and Adam Johnson.



Todd Ingle, junior, sprints to the finish line and a good race time.

Awaiting the start of the race, the Boy's Cross-Country team readies to run.

Making his final surge for the finish line, Jay Crabb, senior, passes fellow Demons, Tommy Stokes, junior, and Billy Annear, senior.

Cross-Country Runs To State

The 1987 season was successful for both Cross-Country teams. The boys placed first at Conference, third at Regionals, and were fourth in State. The girls didn't have enough participants to run as a team, but several placed individually. Coach Gray said he was . . . "extremely pleased because they had reached the goal of all teams: to train all season and improve with each race and run their best times at State."

Taking in all of Coach Gray's pre-race advice, juniors, Sherry Shriver and Amy Harlow, and sophomore, Roxanne Lockwood, listen intently.

Softball Team Works for the Future

This year's softball team came together in the spirit of competition to form a bond of comradeship. Making up for the lack of victories, the team learned to have fun and not take things so seriously. In the top picture players are taking a break in between innings of a game. In the center left picture, sophomore, Belinda Atkins readies to make a hit. In the center right picture coaches Tamera Powers and Dee Dee Chumley take a break and clown a little for a picture.

A Time For Goodbyes

Never give up. That was the phrase that caught the spirit of a town, coined by a coach that has lived by that motto his entire life. Coach Mike Reding has given to this school for 20 years as a teacher, and one of the most successful and caring coaches at Duncan High School. Whether as a line coach in football or head wrestling coach or even as a tennis coach he always asked of his players only things that he would expect of himself. With his departure to the assistant principal job at the junior high, we offer a wish of good luck and a thank you.

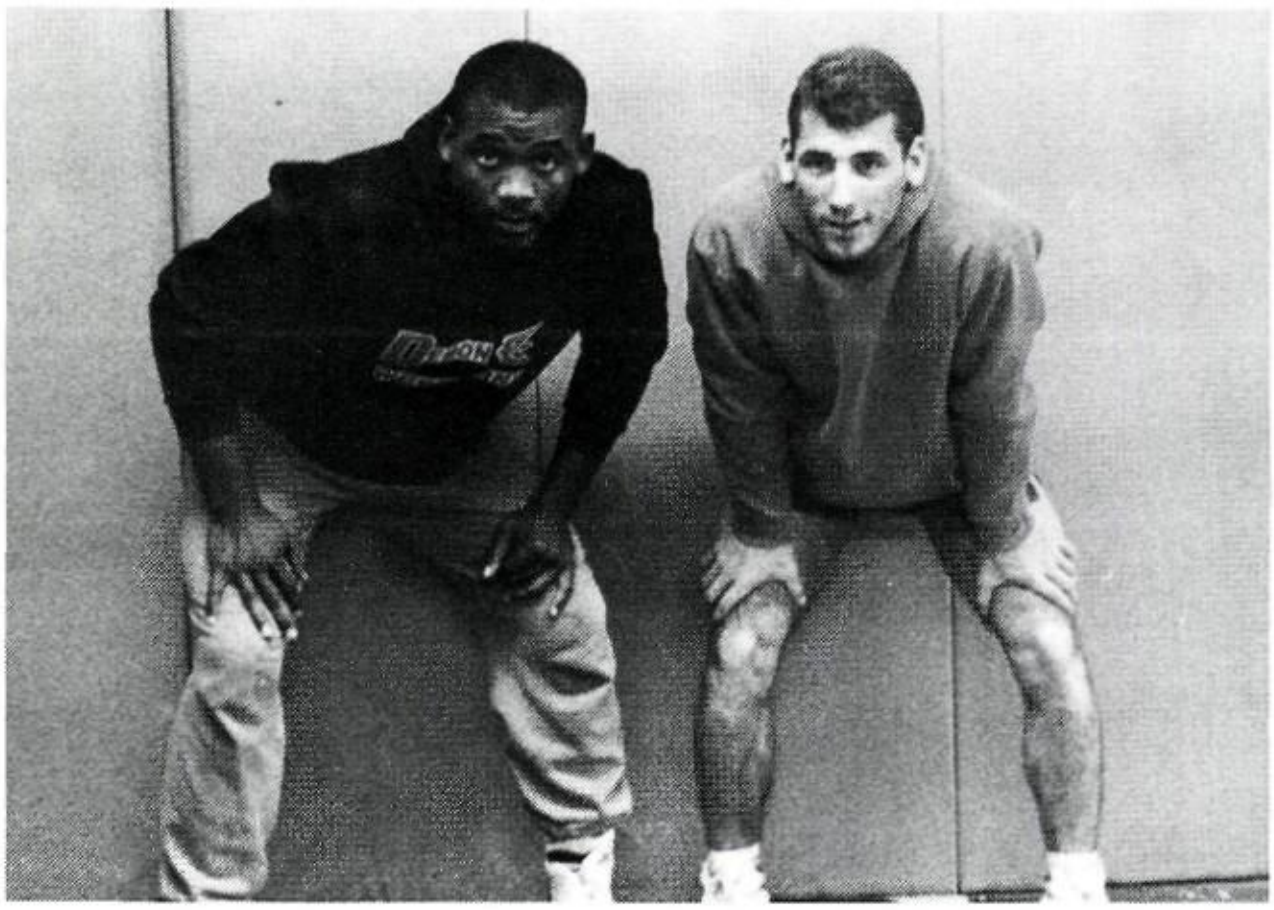
Receiving his award for 20 years of successful work is a surprised Coach Reding.

In his first year, Coach Reding was more than a wrestling coach, he was also the varsity tennis coach.

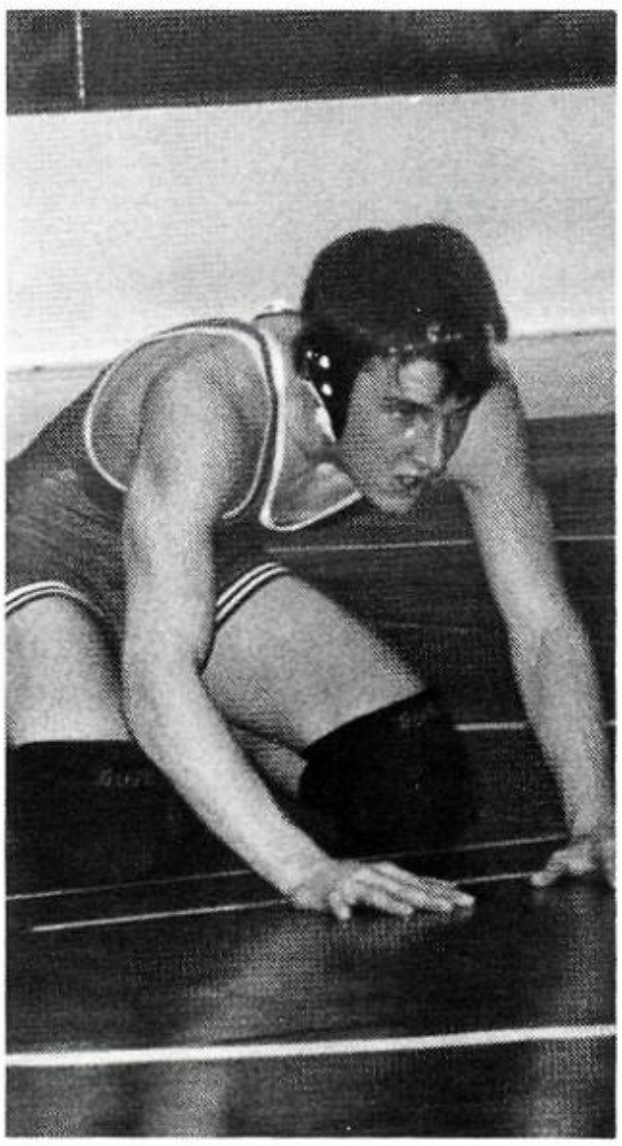
Holding "the stick", Coach Reding urges his linemen on.

Wrestlers Place 3 At State

The 1987-88 wrestling season could be considered an end to an era: the end of coach Mike Reding's successful career as the varsity wrestling coach and the graduation of 11 seniors. The two combined led the team to a 42-2 dual record in the past three years. One of the highlights of this past season was the homecoming defeat of the Marlow Outlaws.



Seniors, Jocko Sanders and Darrel Martin, helped lead the Demons to a 6th place finish at state with a 2nd place and a 1st place finish, respectively.



Getting in position to make his escape is Chad Hendricks, junior.

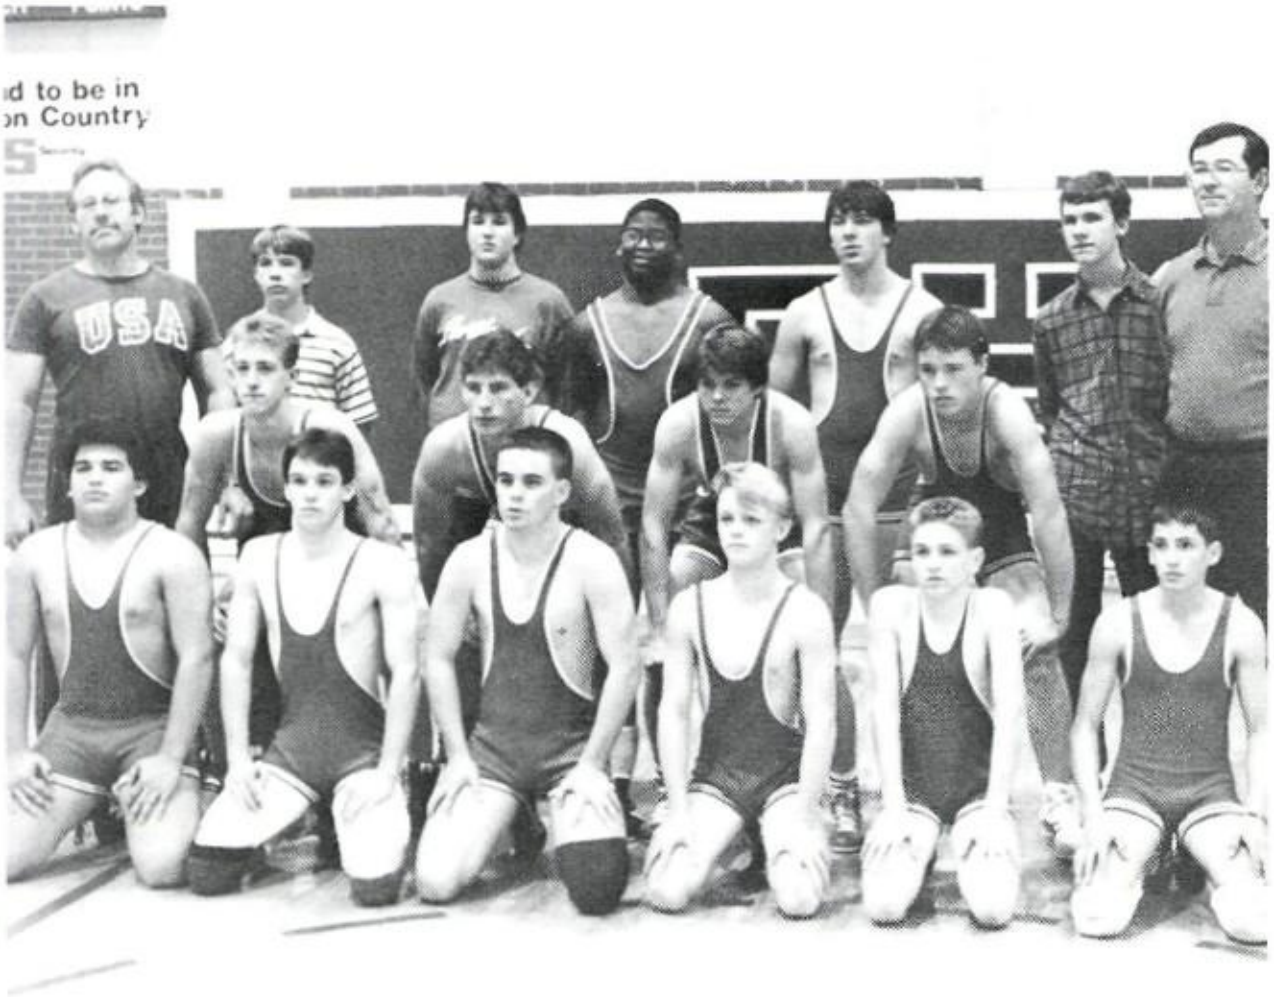
Freshmen Win Conference



The Freshmen Demons had a successful year with good outings from Jason Whetstone, Phillip Thompson, Dev Burum and Brad Tiner. Under the leadership of Coach John Strickland, the Demons won the Great Plains Conference title. With the retirement of varsity wrestling coach Mike Reding, Coach Strickland will be given the chance next year to lead the varsity.

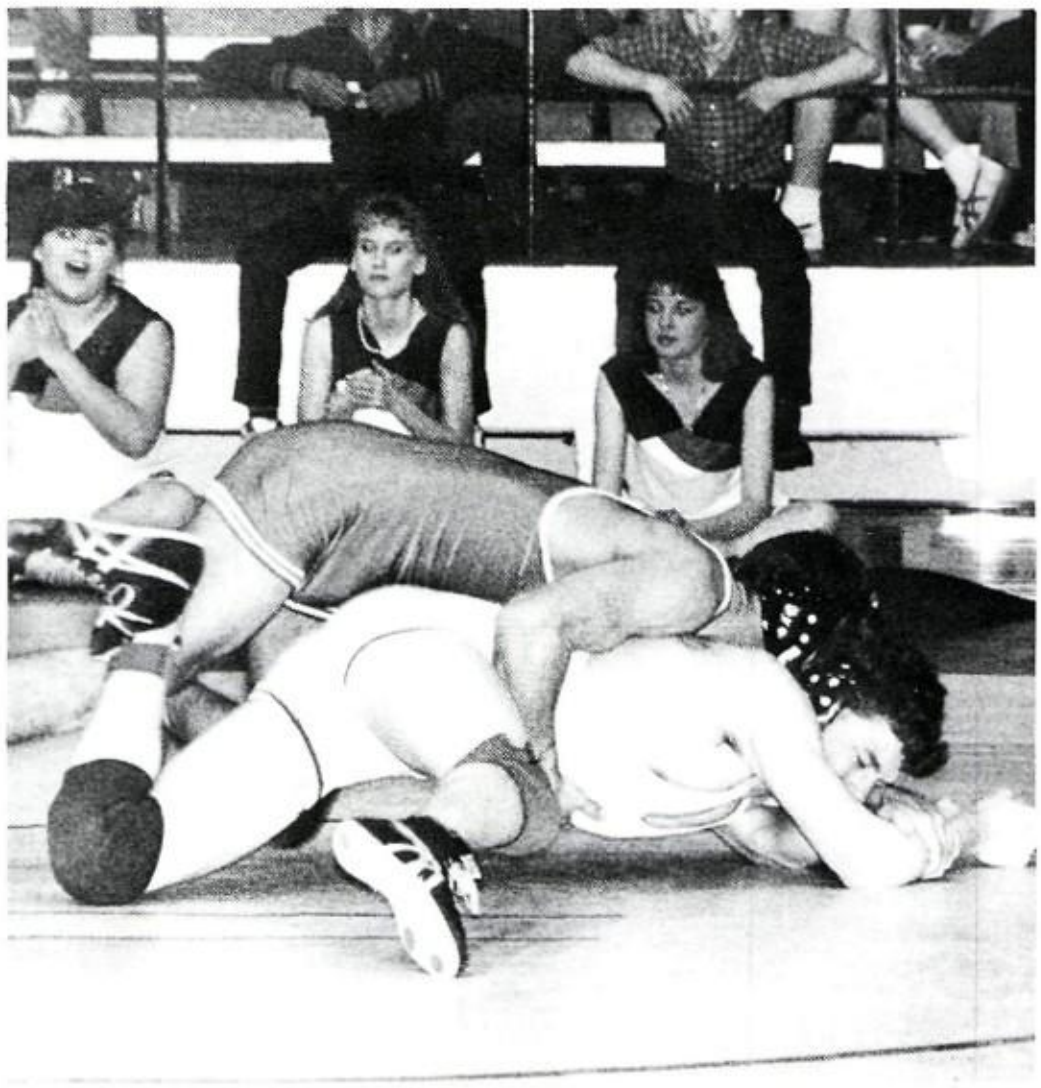
Wrapping his man up and preparing to slam him to the mat is Clinton Bohannon, senior.



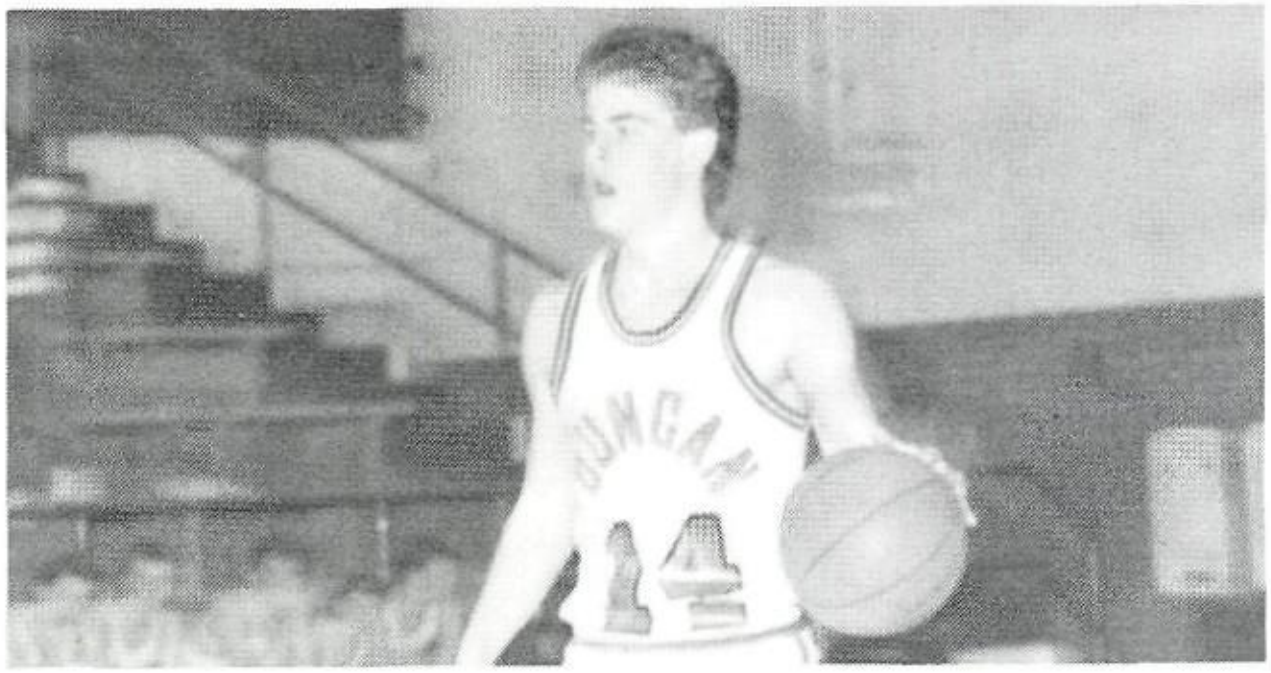
Darrel Martin, senior, shows why he is one of the best wrestlers in the state as he rides his man down on the mat.

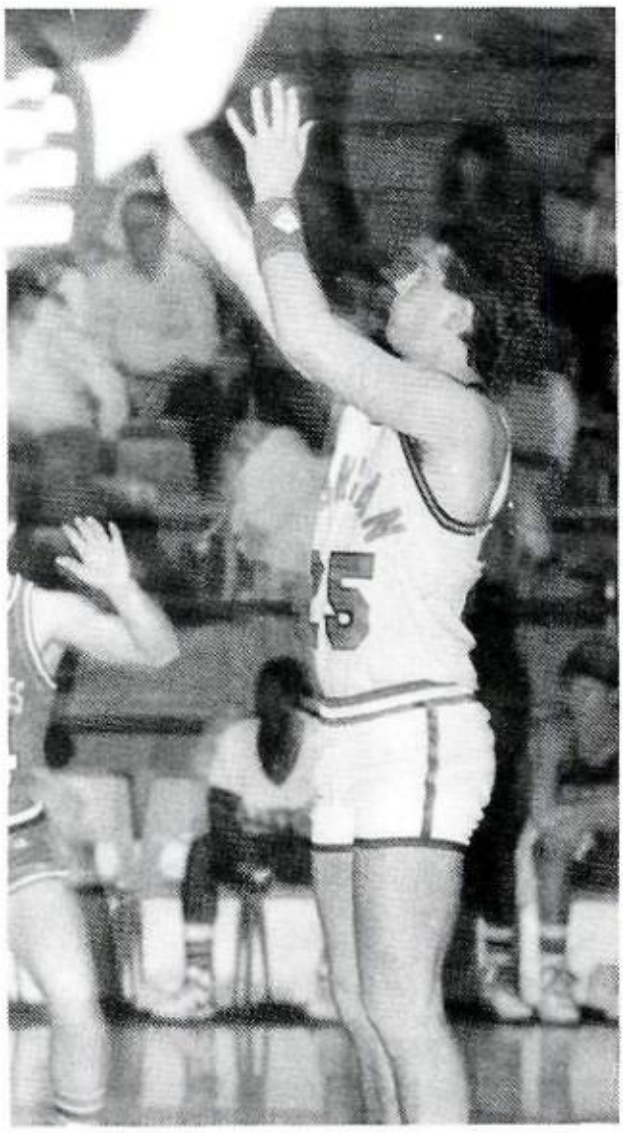
Demons Work For The Future

The 1987-88 Varsity Basketball season wasn't very good record-wise, but as for gaining experience, this was a rich year. With only two seniors there was plenty of playing time for the younger players, with two juniors, three sophomores and one freshman lettering.

Taking a one-on-one shot, Dale Propest, sophomore, keep the score close against Lawton High.

Directing the slow down offense used to pace the game, is sophomore, John Rafter.





Back Row: Coach Kelly Jobe, Dale Propest, Russell Hodrick, Clayton Franklin, Tim Buben, Shannon Spruiell, Brad Morrisett, Coach Mike Evans, and Coach P.T. Barnes. Row 2: Jimmy Johnson, Chris Taylor, Deryl Telford, John Schabram, Yuseff Saunders, Jason Hosch and Rob Weedn. Front Row: Andy Roe, Timmy Franks, Jason Kays, John Rafter, and Bobby Franks.

Shannon Spruiell, senior, places a crucial shot in against Lawton High.

Freshmen End Successful Year

The Freshmen Demons showed hope for the future with a very successful season. This was a freshman season for both the Little Demons and for Coach Harris. There should be many victories in the coming years.

Concentrating on his shot, Todd Ledford sets up for the free-throw.

Getting set to throw in the ball is Ricky Sanders.

Taking the team down court is Tony DeCarlo in the Great Plains Conference Tournament.

Girls Make Switch To 5-On-5

This was a year of new beginnings for the Lady Demons with the arrival of a new coach and a new style of game. Making the switch to 5-on-5 from the old style 6-on-6 was a challenge met successfully by the team. The team was led by seniors, Dawn White, Michelle Mitchell and Piper Massagee, sophomore Stephanie Hicks, and freshmen, Carrie Perkins and Regina Duncan, the Lady Demons built a foundation for a solid team.

Putting up a jump-shot against LHS is Regina Duncan, freshman.

Taking the ball down court is, sophomore Stephanie Hicks. She was the Lady Demons' leading scorer.

Freshmen Make Strides for Future

The Freshman girls capped off a surprising season by placing well at the Great Plains Conference Tournament. With the addition of new head coach, Deana Thompson, and the switch to 5-on-5, the team and coach learned from each other and adapted to their change. The girls of this team are expected to be major contributors to the varsity in the future.

Putting an important shot up in the Great Plains Conference Tournament is Elisa Vinson.

Demons Surprise At State

The Duncan diamonders kept with NNNNNGU spirit by being labeled as underdogs, winning their regional in 3-straight games and being State-Runners Up. With good hitting and solid pitching, they compiled a 24-12 record. Led by seniors, Steve Hale, Kevin Rogers, Jason Hutto, Keith Carl and Shannon Spruiell, and Jay Gregston, junior, they dominated many opponents this season.

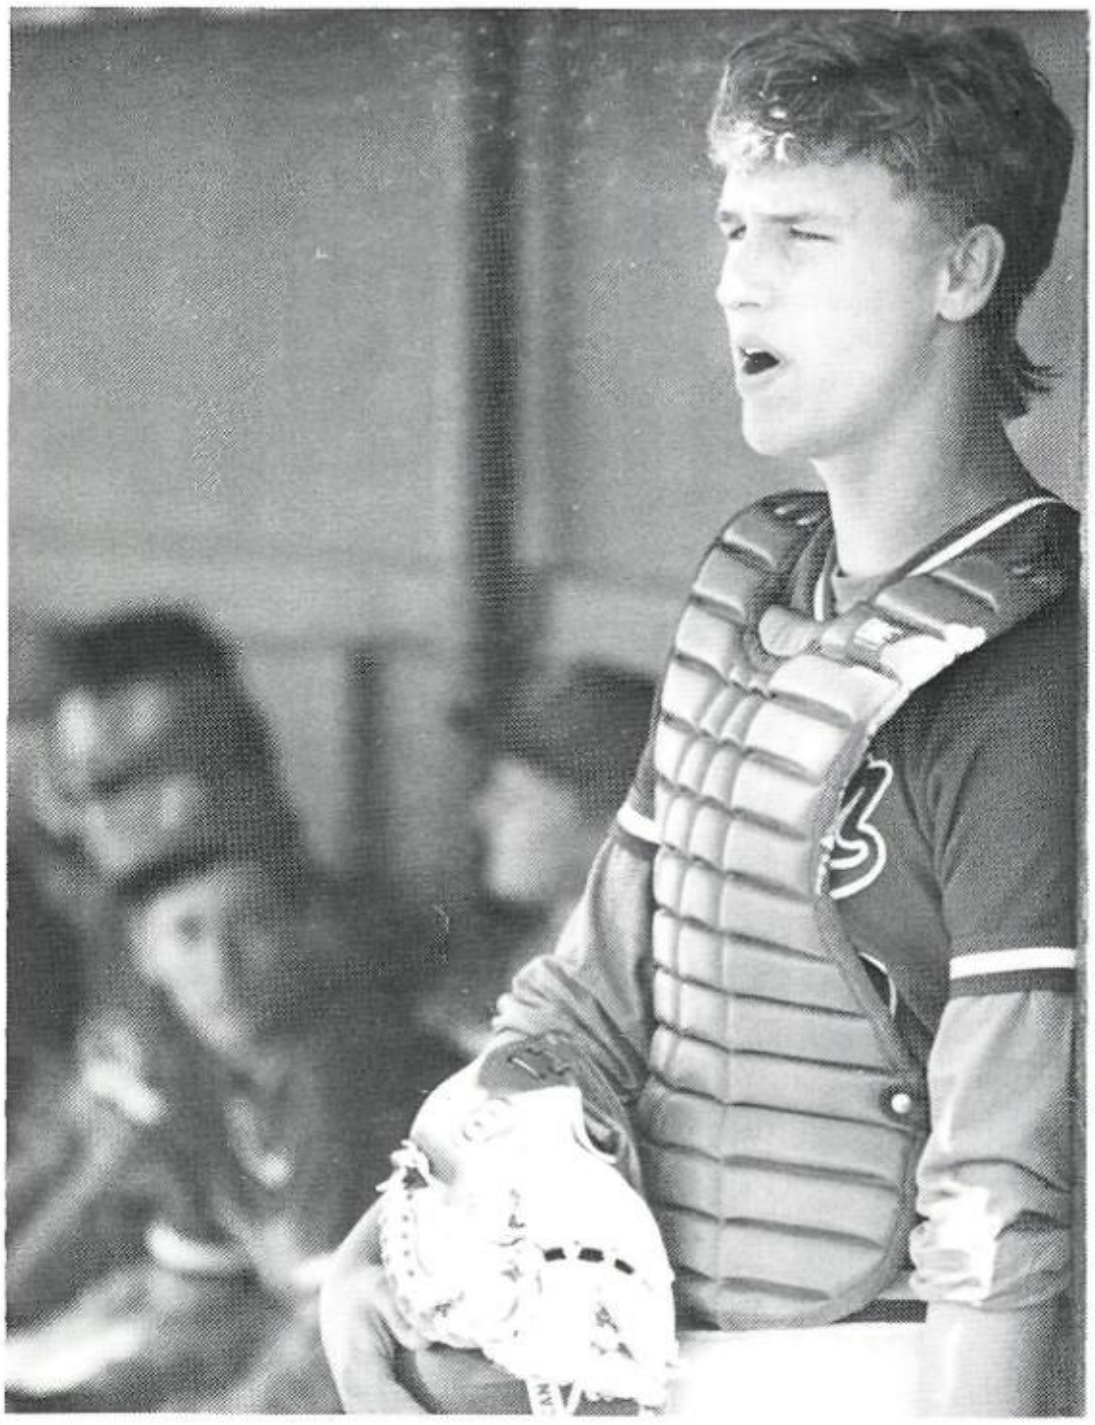
J-V 2nd In County Tourney

The junior varsity team, led by Coach Bruce Gahagan, worked and proved that the varsity program of Duncan High School could keep up the tradition of excellence in baseball. One of the main highlights of this season, was a 2nd place finish in the Stephens County Tournament. In February, Coach Gahagan was awarded a Coach of the Year award.



Waiting on the Chickasha batter to step in to the batter's box in regional action is Kevin Laukhauf, senior.

Safe at third is junior, Scott Rains.

Frieouf Coaches Final Season

The freshman team was led by outstanding pitching performances by Marco Millan, Michael Hodges, and Ricky Sanders and an abundant amount of talent. Led by Coach Jerry Frieouf, in his final season at DHS, the young Demons compiled a 12-12 record. Coach Frieouf coached many of the talented individuals in DHS's past, but said he believes these freshmen may be some of the most talented he's coached.

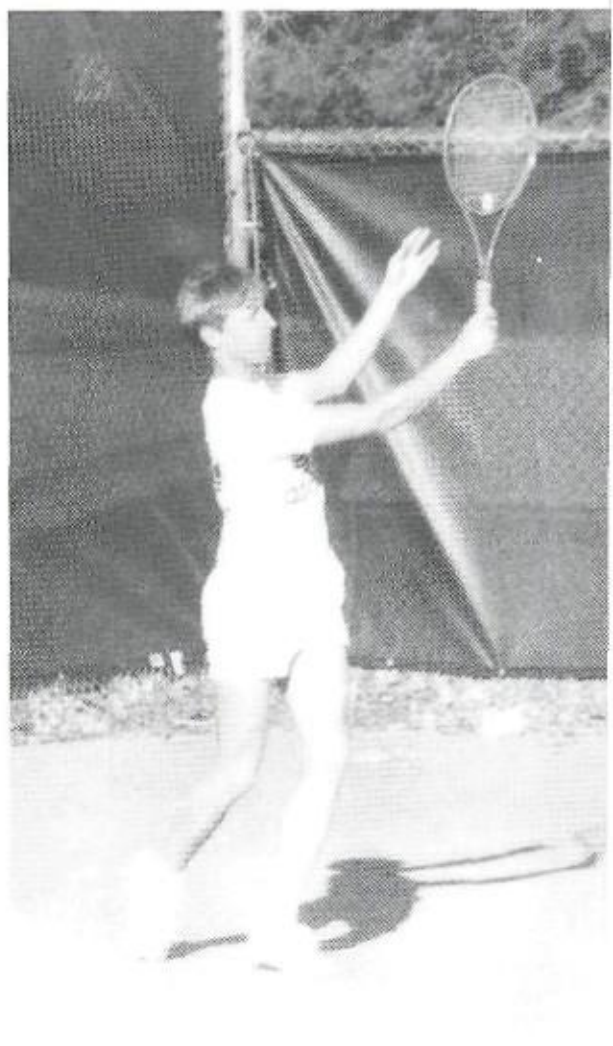
Boys Win State --- Again!!!

The boys tennis team won state once again under the leadership of Coach P.T. Barnes. In state action the boys were led by Jon Fennel and John Weaver's 1st place in No. 1 doubles, a 1st in No. 2 singles by Michael Sparks, a 4th place in No. 1 singles by Jason Johnson and a 7th place by Abe Oliver and Tony Link in No. 2 Doubles.

Jon Fennel, junior, won his 2nd state doubles championship with John Weaver.



Returning a shot is No. 1 singles player Jason Johnson, junior.

STATE CHAMPIONS Scott Werner, Michael Sparks, John Weaver, Abe Oliver Jason Johnson, Jon Fennel, Tony Link Jimmy Cupples, and Coach Phil Barnes.

Girls Very Competitive

The Girl's tennis team was a dominating force with a sweep of the Southern Oklahoma Invitational tournament, a good showing at Regionals and a 6th place by Jill Lang at state. With a good showing by Lang, and solid play in the doubles by Jenna Jones and Melissa Ridley, the girls team was hard to beat.

Bostick, Frosh Qualify

The 1988 Duncan boys golf team was led by Brent Bostick and his third 2nd place showing at state. Freshmen Joe Hall and Casey Lynch both qualified for state, gaining valuable experience for the future. Coach Eddie Cox was proud of his team, saying: "We are going to be a hard team to beat."

Back Row: Coach Eddie Cox, Josh Herndon, Chad Edwards, J.R. McCoy, Byron Crabb, Doug Murray. Row 3: Danny Newton, David Kendrick, David Pierce, Cale Herndon, Rodney Pollock, and Richie Lewis. Row 2: Jason Hosch, Brenton Hunt, Jack Beene, Danny Snow, Brent Bostick, Clay Jordan, Charles Cash. Front Row: Kenny Thompson, Deryl Telford, Joe Hall, Brian Schmidt, Casey Lynch, and Jason Hunt.

Brent Bostick, junior, shows the putting form that has made him a 3-year all-stater.

Wright Leads Girls at State

The Girls Golf team, led by Coach Chuck Croy, surprised everyone by placing 8th in the state. This was out of every golf team in the state, as there are no classes in golf in state competition. Melissa Wright proved to be the girls' ace golfer, placing well in every tournament this season. Also, the return of Amy Whitney to golf, gave the team a boost.

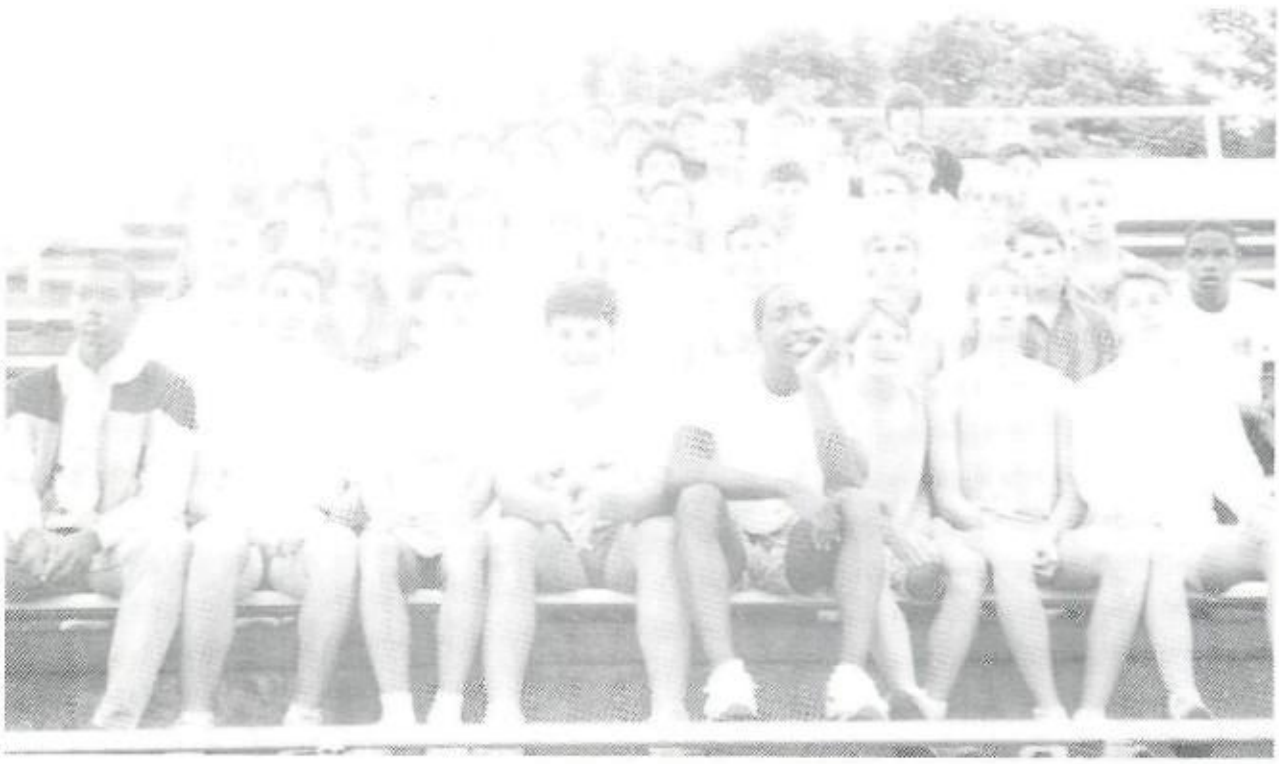
Tracksters 3rd At State

BOYS TRACK: Seniors - Tim Buben, Jonathan Hosch, Eric Newberry, Brett Reding, Trey Stout; Juniors - Robert Blackburn, Jay Carr, John Duncan, Brian Finley, Tommy Stokes, Todd Talton, Royce Townsend; Sophomores - Jr. Barton, Mgr., Clayton Franklin, Jason Kays, Jason Loucks, Mike Penny, Dale Propest, Chris Taylor, Chris Ward; Freshmen - Todd Ledford, Gary Strong, Brad Tiner, Jason Whetstone and Greg Wilmoth.

The boys track team was very explosive this year, with strong showings in every event. They placed 6th at SOI, 4th at Regionals and 3rd at State.



Duncan's two-time state champ, Todd Talton, gets ready for State.

Sophomore Dale Propest gives it his best at the Southern Oklahoma Invitational Track Meet.

Duncan School Board Members: James Stewart, Robert Richardson, Jack Atchley, James Roche, Robbie Hayes and Clinton Murphree.

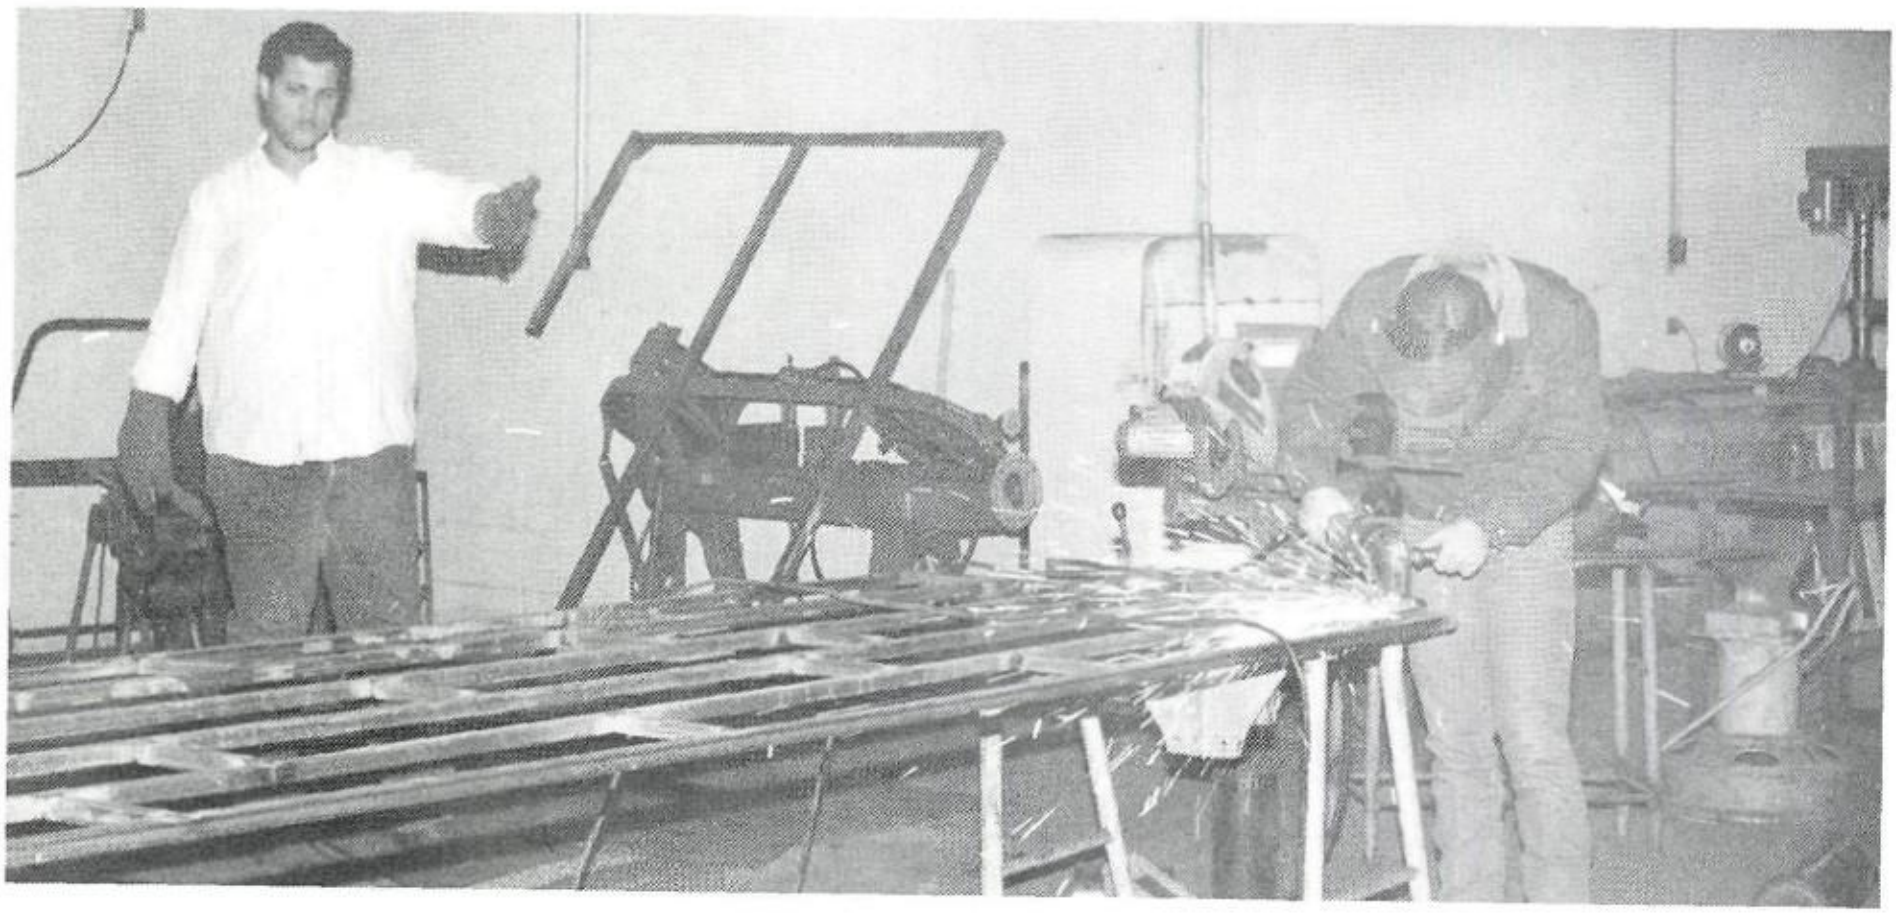
Hands-On Experience For Ag

The process of animal selection, management, and feed and care were learned by the agriculture class instructed by Tom Berninger. The class sold sausage and also had guest speakers which spoke about careers, tax laws, and insurance.

Equipment maintenance is an important part of agriculture as shown by Shannon Brown and Jason Palmer, sophomores.



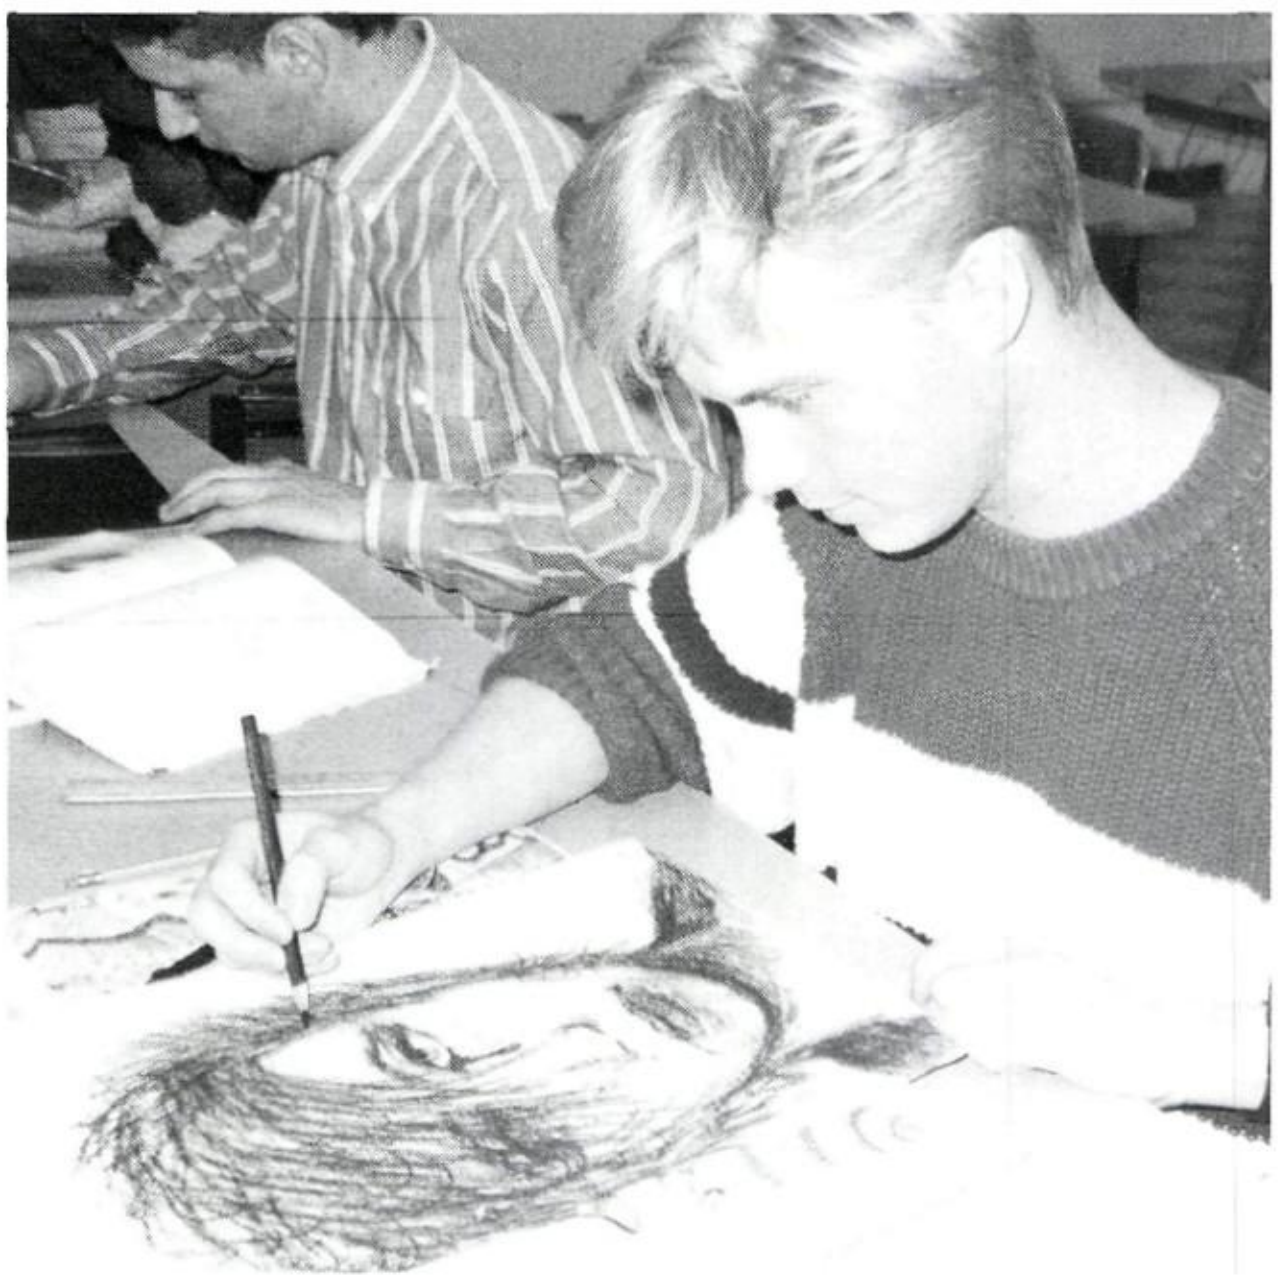
Juniors Shane Behymer and Brian Kellogg get hands-on experience while grinding a gate in there Agriculture II class.

Art Offers Students Variety

The Art Department offered a wide variety of classes, ranging from Art I and Ceramics to Art IV. The Art I class helped students to begin developing the basic talents an artist uses. Art II through Art IV was an extension of Art I but the subject matter and the mediums used also increased in difficulty.

Art students Brian Schimdt, Anthony Williams, and Loiuse Holland put the finishing touches on some pictures.

Charles Novotny has been the art instructor for eleven years.



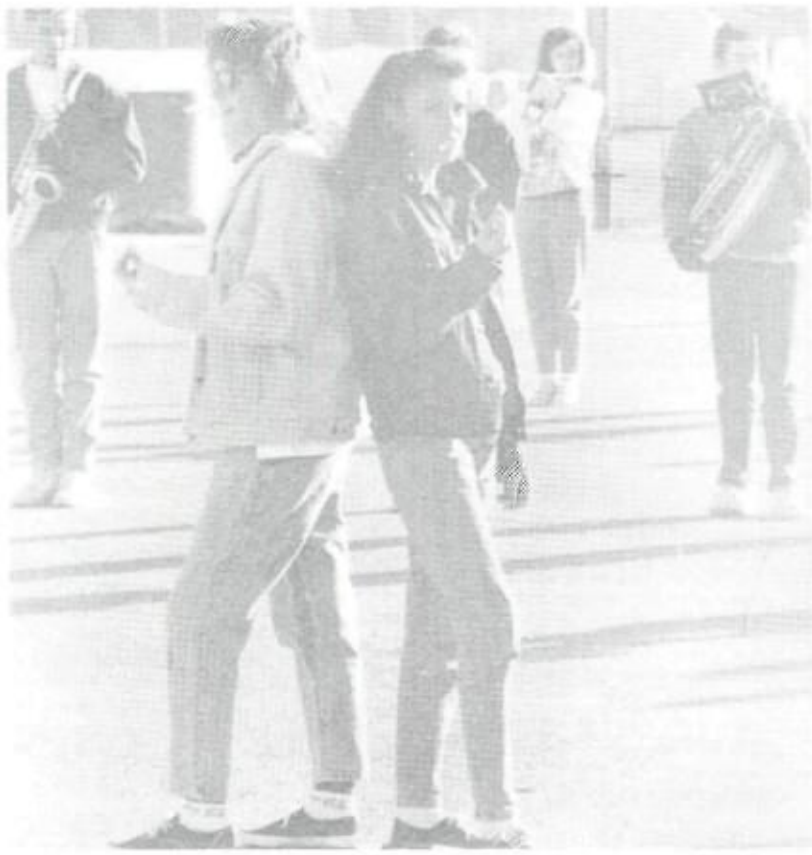
Concentrating on his art project is John Payne, senior.

Band Says "Florida Or Bust"

The invitation to the Daily Magic Kingdom Parade at Orlando, Florida, was inspiration for the band to raise $28,000 to finance the trip. Besides doing lots of fund raising, the band still managed to be one of the best 4A bands in the state.

The band's formation helps the homecoming candidates come onto the field.

The band adds lots of pep to the morning assemblies.



Flag Corp members, Wendy Moore and Rebecca Davis, practice their 50's routine before school.

New Computers For Business

The Business Department purchased eight new computers for the word processing and computer keyboarding classes. The computers were bought in order to meet the high enrollment of this class. The classes offered in Business were Accounting 1 and 2, Typing 1 and 2, Business Law, Word Processing, Keyboarding, and Economics.

Training in computers is important for students in today's society, and junior, Shelly Smiddy, shows it can be fun.

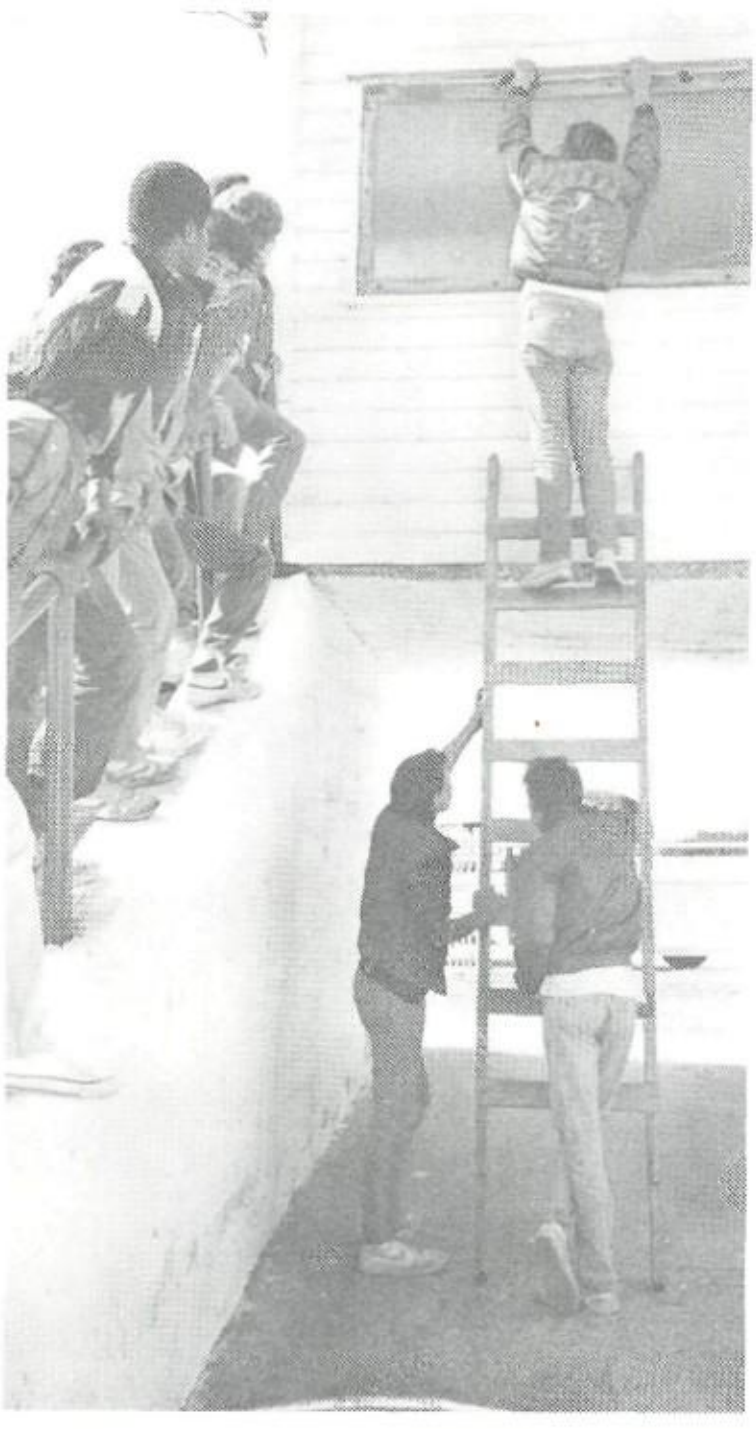
CVET Students Learn Skills

The CVET (Coordinated Vocational Educational Training) construction trades class had several projects. The ninth and tenth grades remodeled the pressbox at the baseball field. They also built cabinets for an office in the library. CVET students learned skills in many areas of the building trades. The CVET course was instructed by Walker Ryan.

Constructing sidewalks is just one of the students' projects.

Below Right, ninth and tenth grades are on their way to complete another important project.

Remodeling the pressbox at the Duncan High baseball field is the CVET class.



Competitive Year For Speech

The Debate and Speech Departments under the direction of Denise Hines, go to at least five state contests a year. They competed duets, interpretations, poetry, prose, monologue and oratory.

Practicing their contest material are senior, Stacy Sykes, and junior, Amanda Brock.

Behind The Wheel Experience

Before passing Driver's Education, everyone must be able to go through the driving range with ease.

Learning to drive is exciting when one has teachers like Chuck Croy, Kelly Jobe, and Charles Lynch. Instruction in skills of driving were available for students who were 15 years old or older. In addition to receiving actual hands-on experience behind the wheel of a car, students were required to know the rules and regulations every licensed driver should know.

When not on the range or simulators, students study the driving skill books.

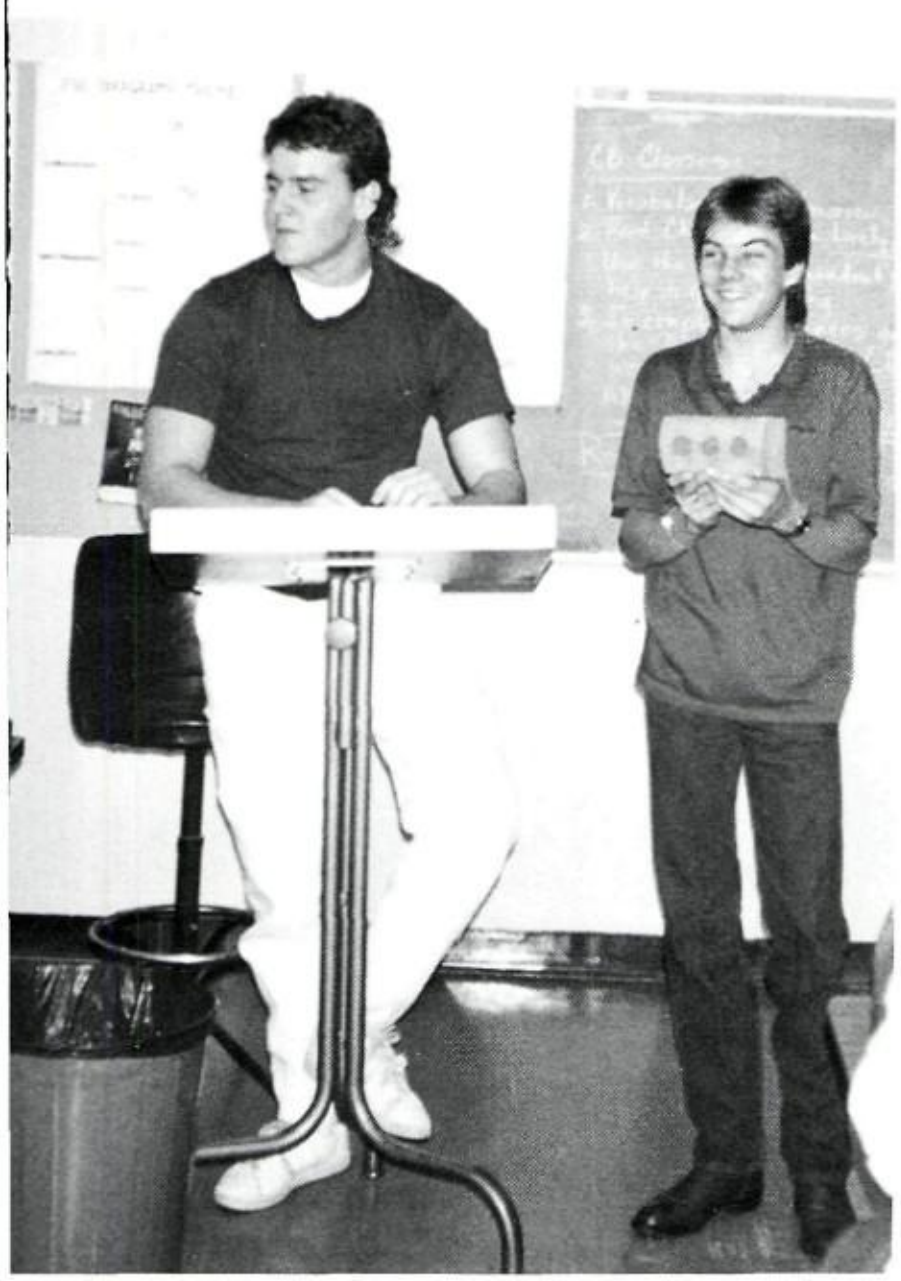
The simulators help the students get the feel of the wheel.

Emphasis On English Strong

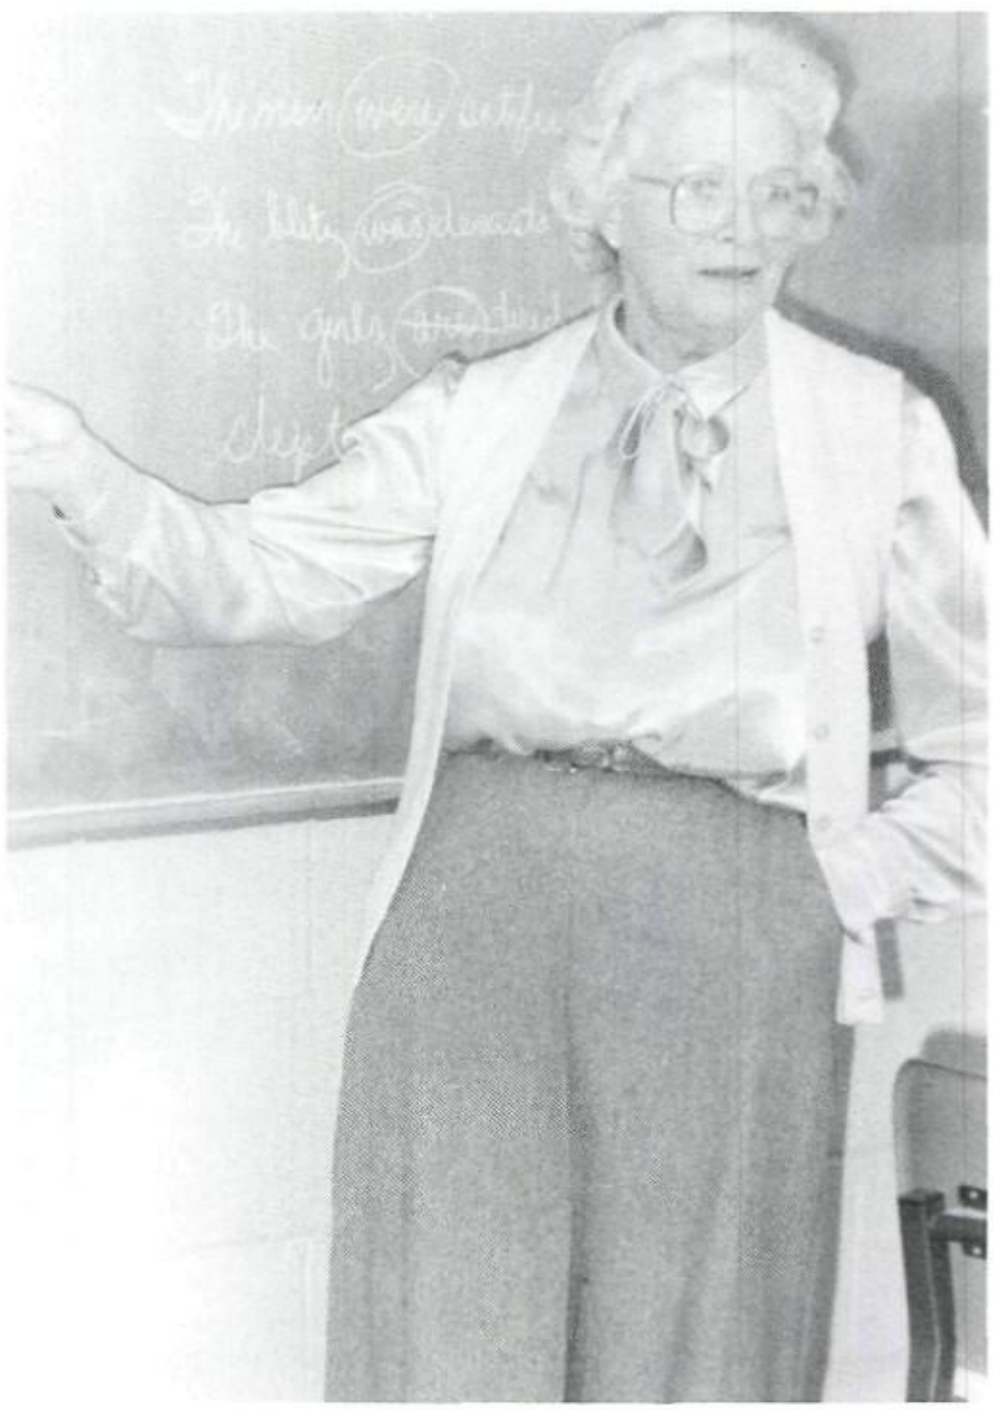
Freshmen English teacher, Sharon Bullard, takes a minute to look over Casey Lynch's writing assignment.

The emphasis on English in the high school curriculum continued to be strong. Whether it was regular, college bound, or honors English, everyone was required to have four credits to graduate. It was also a time for change, as long time senior English teacher, Peggy Price, retired in December, and Cheryl Farmer was welcomed as her replacement.

Following tradition, seniors in June Richardson's fourth hour work on term papers.



Talking about their brick advertisements for Jayne Byford's fifth hour, are juniors, Richard Brittain and Jason Swinson.



Language Offerings Varied

The Foreign Language Department included Spanish, French, and German. The Spanish teachers were Diane Battles and Rita Arze. Spanish could be learned by students from Spanish I, a very basic level, up to Spanish IV. The French classes were taught by Debby Shiffer. French could also be learned by students through level IV. The German class was taught via satellite by Walker Ryan.

Spanish teacher, Diane Battles completes her thirteenth year of teaching.

The Home Economics Department has expanded through recent years. In addition to classes in foods and clothing, there were careers, family relations, parenting and child care, and interior decorating classes.

Careers class gives students a chance to examine possible job opportunities open to the, after high school.

Sanitary procedures are observed by Family Relations students as they get an insider's view of Mercy Hospital in Oklahoma City.

Fun Times In Yearbook

A hardworking staff shared many very special times, as they worked together to produce what they hoped would be one of the best yearbooks ever. Although to someone walking through the halls the classroom may have sounded like an outgoing party, it would be difficult to find a harder working group of students when it really counted — at deadline time.

In addition to being entrusted with producing the only existing historical record of the 1987-88 school year, staffers were also learning a variety of valuable journalistic skills, ranging from photography to writing to layout and design, to name a few.

Talking over sports page layouts are Scott Rains and Mark Miller, juniors.

J-Students Get Experience

Like the yearbook class, Pitchfork staffers had their fair share of fun and sometimes more than their share of hard work. After approximately six weeks of orientation to newspaper production, students got right to work. They learned skills such as typesetting, layout and design, copy editing and proofreading, photography, and of course, writing. Journalism instructor, Sharon Bullard, served as advisor for The Demon Pitchfork.

Preparing papers for exchange with other schools are senior John Payne, and sophomore Holli Perdue.

Library Provides Quiet Time

Helping students find information on a variety of subjects is Peggy Hedrick.

Library aid, (above right) Bobby Feldick, has a little light-hearted fun.

Study time needs to be in a quiet atmosphere, and the DHS library was a great place for this purpose. Head Librarian was Elizabeth Grooms, assisted by Peggy Hedrick.

Students use their study time wisely in the library.

Math Prepares For Future

In order to graduate everyone was required to have at least two credits of math. The math levels ranged from general math to calculus. Math instructors were Waurane Hodge, Gerald Wheeler, Barbara Williams, Guynell Ferguson, Sylvia Loveday, Joyce Lockwood and Janie Shaw.

Geometry teacher, Sylvia Loveday, often uses the overhead projector to give her examples.

Getting a breather in between papers is Gerald Wheeler.

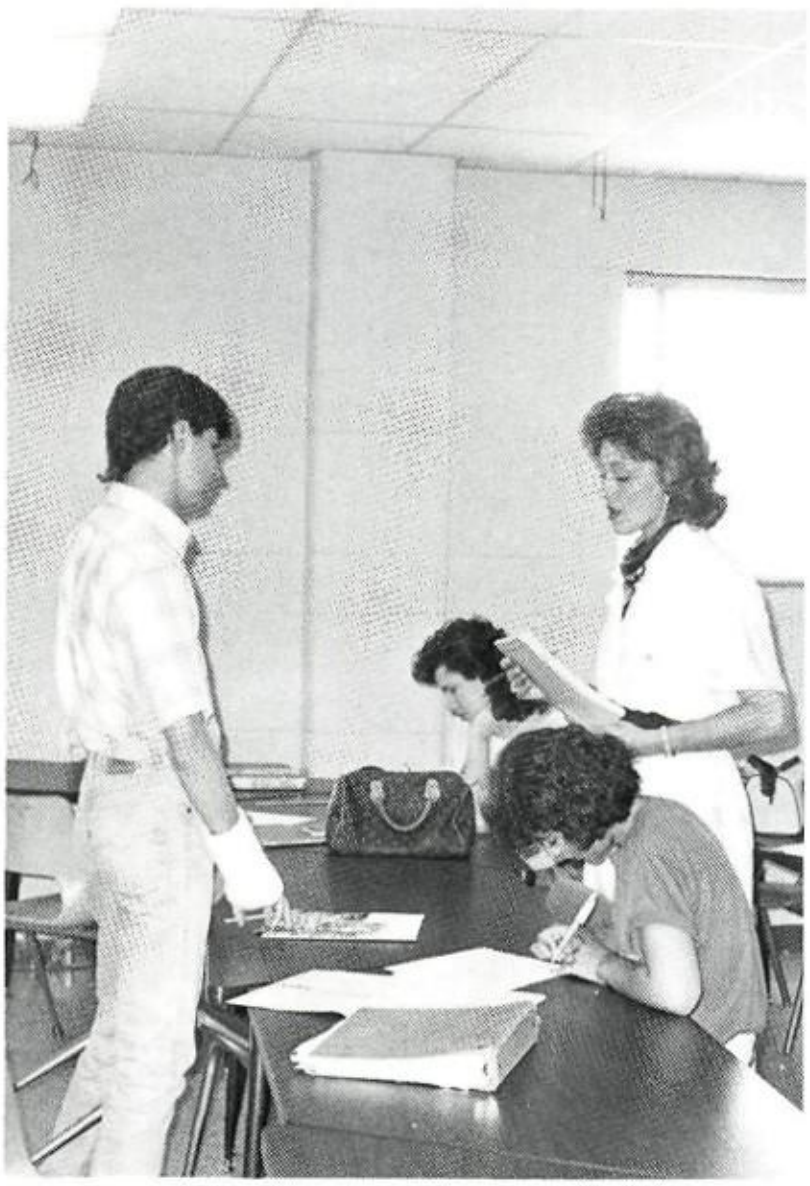
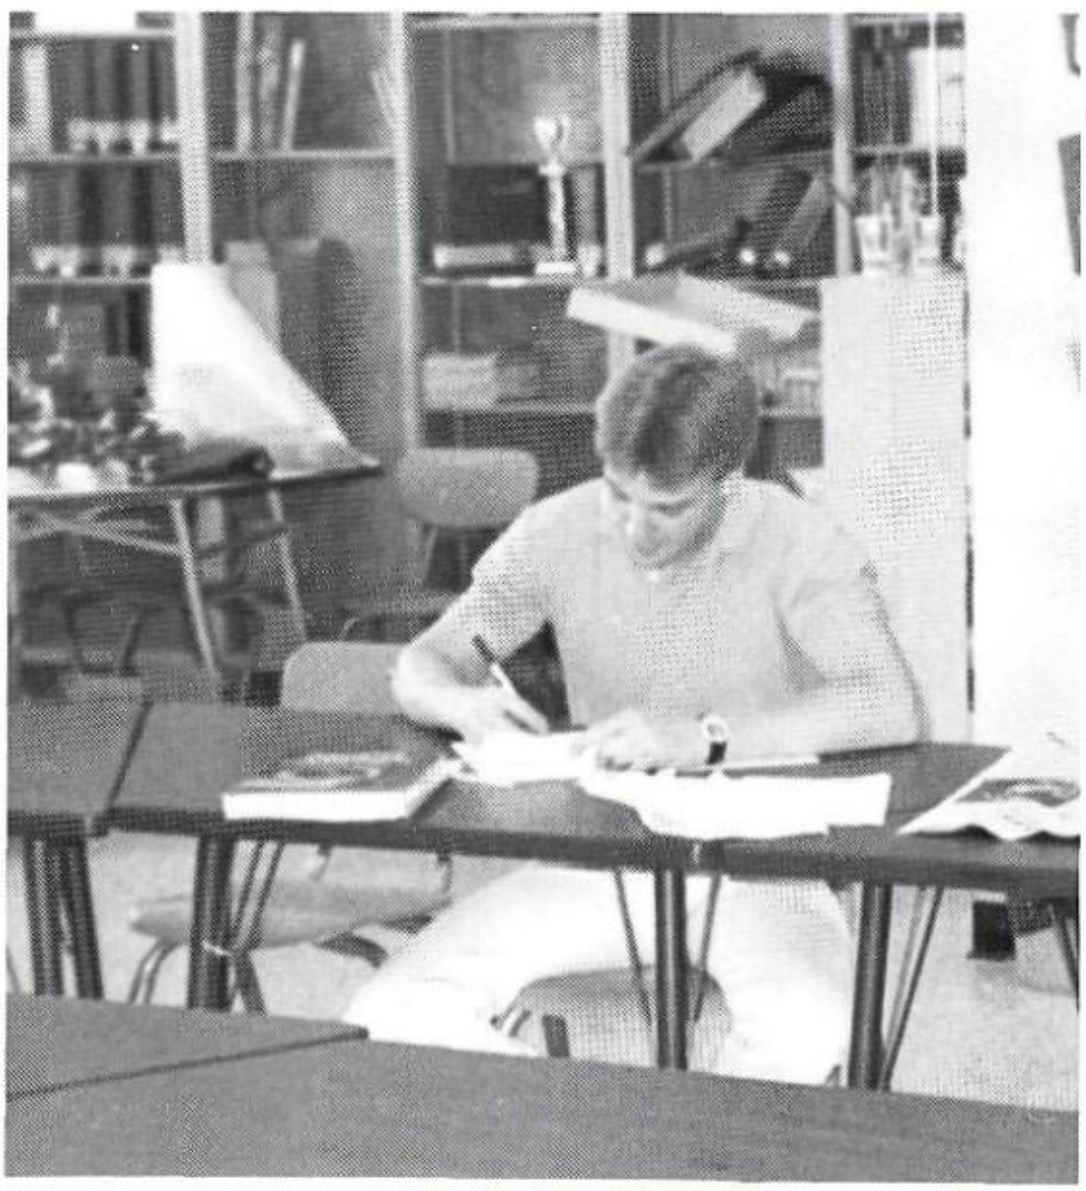
M.E. Provides Experience

Marketing education taught a basic understanding of marketing concepts. Areas included in the curriculum were human relations skills, math, communications, economics, display, advertising, sales promotion, and leadership development skills. Actual on-the-job training was set up on a cooperative basis between local businesses and the school so that a student was actually in a laboratory training position.

Second hour students work diligently on their daily assignments.



Senior Rodney Davis gets help from marketing education teacher Johnette Harper.



Junior, Jason Morris studies notes for an upcoming test.

Changing Times In Music

The Music Department was involved in various concerts throughout the year, including annual Fall and Spring musicals. Changes occurred such as the retirement of Carolyn Herrin and Nancy Sikes taking the helm in December.

Music teacher, Carolyn Herrin, helps students prepare for contest.

Students preform for the public at the Fuqua Park Gazebo.

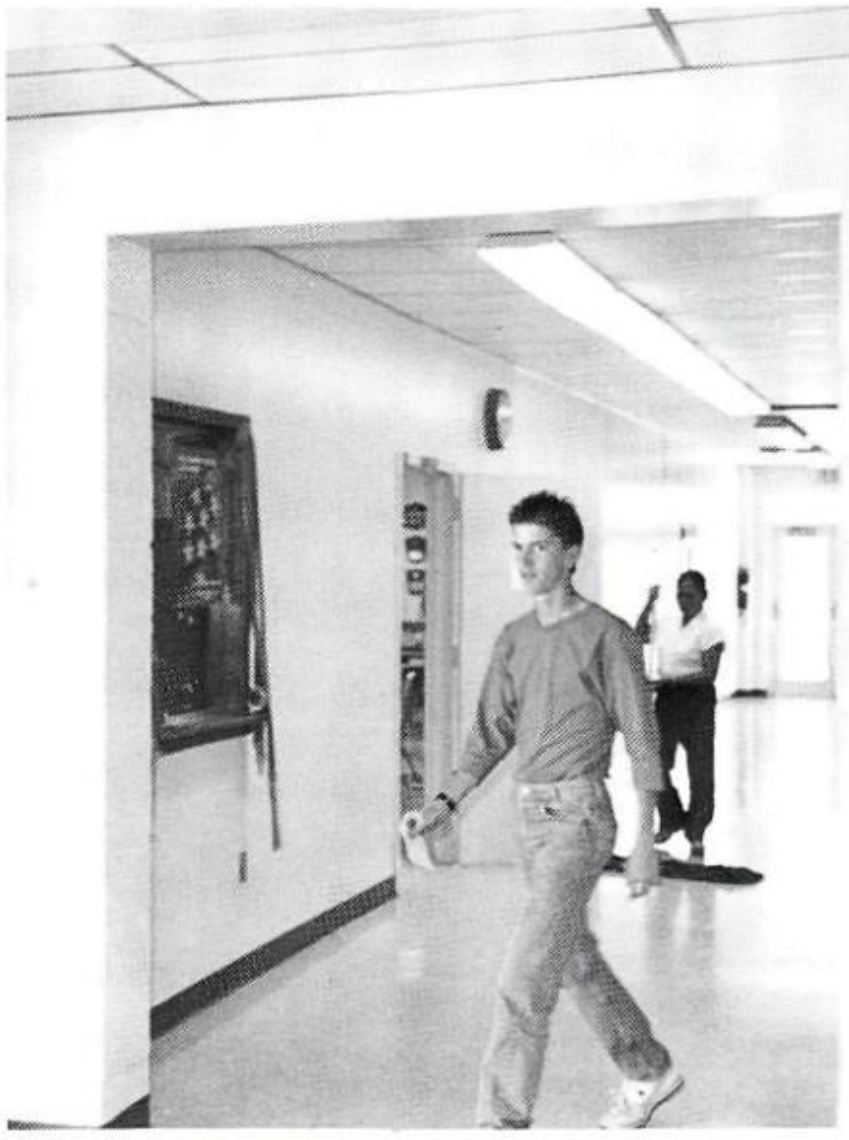
New teacher, Nancy Sikes, practices with her freshmen music students.

Office Aides Serve School

There are many qualifications needed before one can become an office aide. A student must be either a junior or senior, keep up with his or her grades, and attend class regularly. They receive a grade for the class.

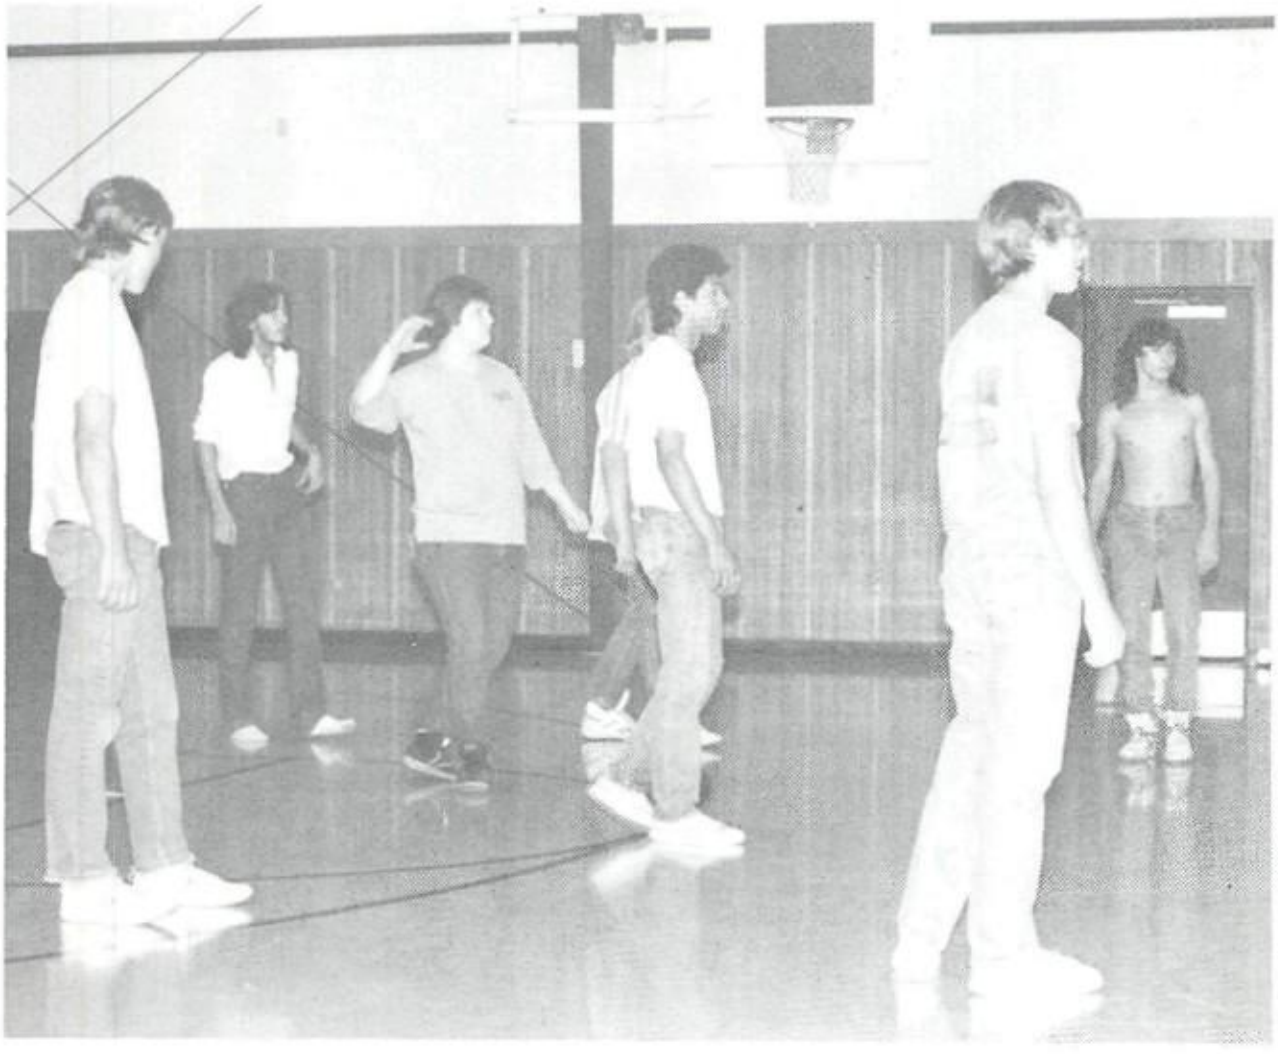
Office aides Steven Gray and Shannon Pollock do homework in their spare time.

Senior, Nita Earnhart, office aide, is instructed by Cynthia Allen, secretary.



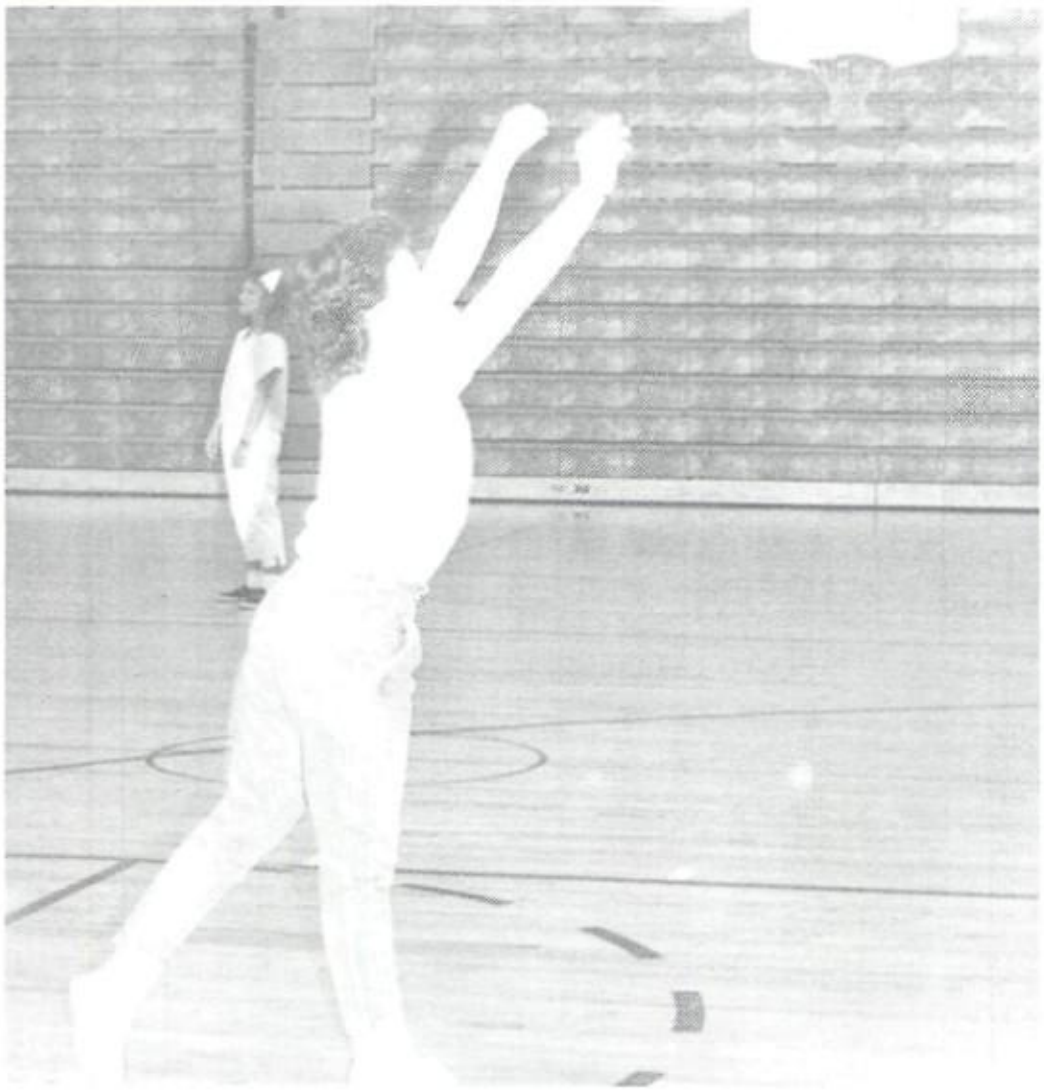
Picking up the absentee cards is Tod Bower, senior.

P.E. Activities Varied



The girls physical education classes were instructed by Thel Shelby. The various activities included soccer, volleyball, basketball, and a 12-minute run. The boys physical education classes were instructed by Bill Patterson. Their activities included volleyball, basketball, kickball, and football.

The boys p.e. class participate in a game of volleyball.



Senior, Cissy Pagel, puts up a shot in the girls P.E. class.

Three Join Science Staff

The science curriculum included classes in biology, chemistry, physical science, ad earth science. Joining the faculty in that department were new teachers Tom Williams, Neal Garrett and Susan Camp. Classroom and laboratory activities combined to keep students busy and interested.

Biology I students listen attentively to teacher, June Barrington's lecture.

Chemistry students seem to enjoy the subject matter in Tom Williams' fifth hour class.

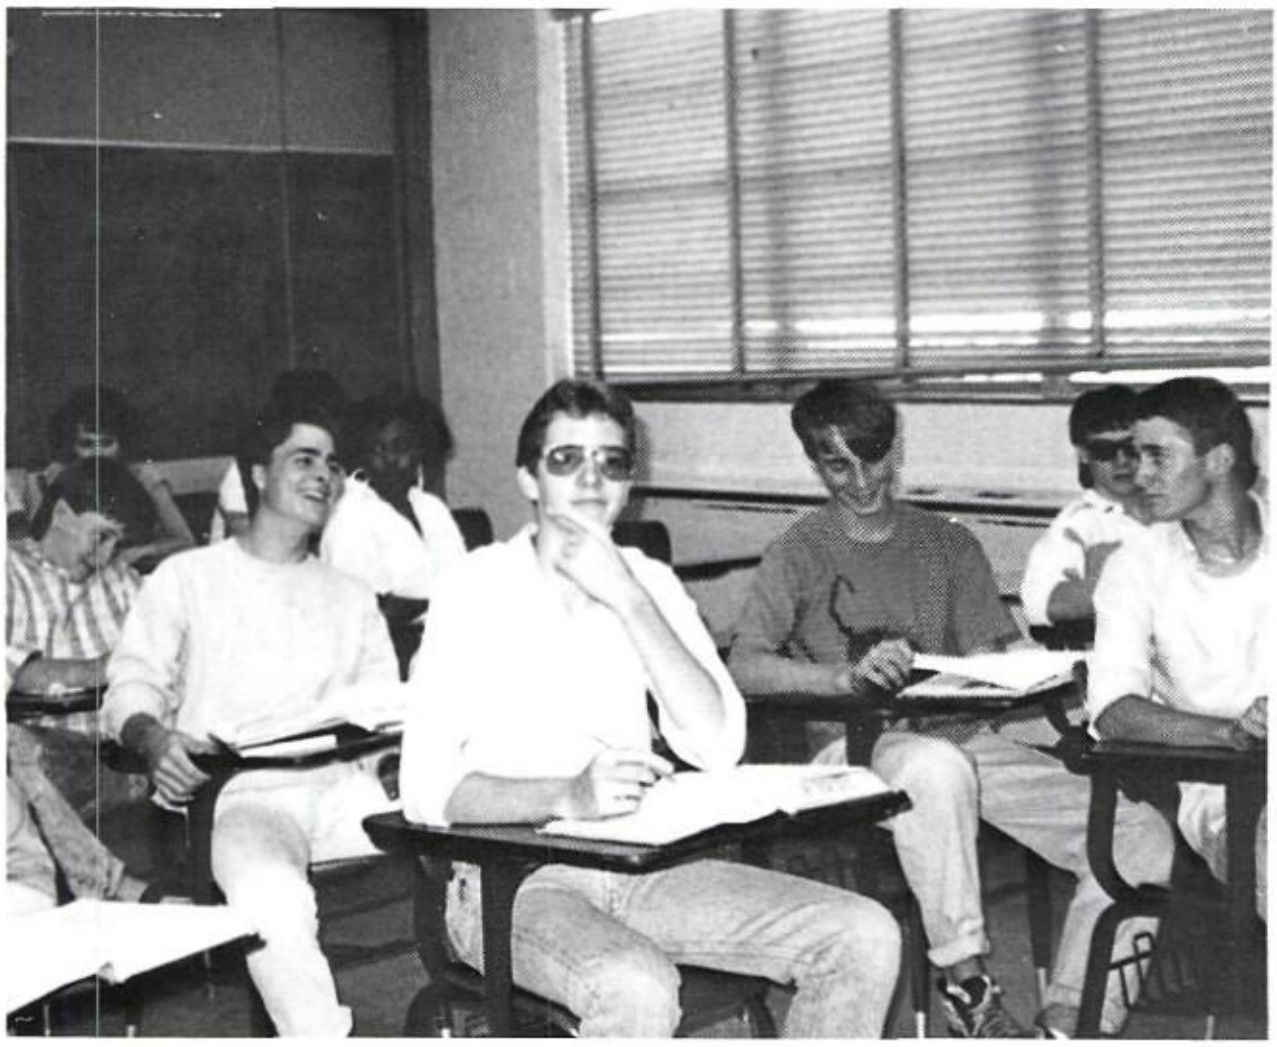
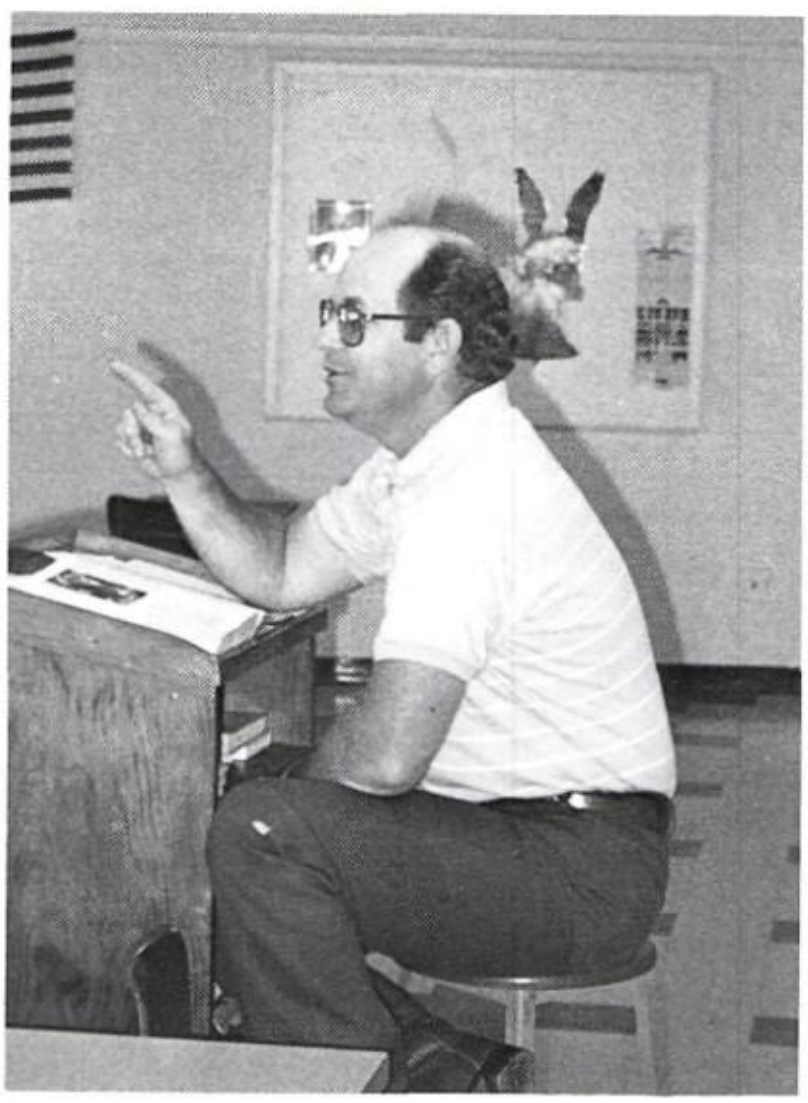
Students Learn From History



The Social Science Department included a variety of courses which focused on the study of society and it's individual relationships. Classes in American history, Oklahoma history, government, psychology, and sociology were offered. Many special projects were of interest to students during the year, including a presentation by 92-year-old, Velma Taliaferro, who presented 20 copies of her book on early Stephens County history to the department.

History students (top) listen as sophomore, Jason Hosch, answers a question.



Exchange student, Robert Blanchet, gets a lesson in American history from Michelle Taylor. Blanchet came to Duncan from Switzerland.

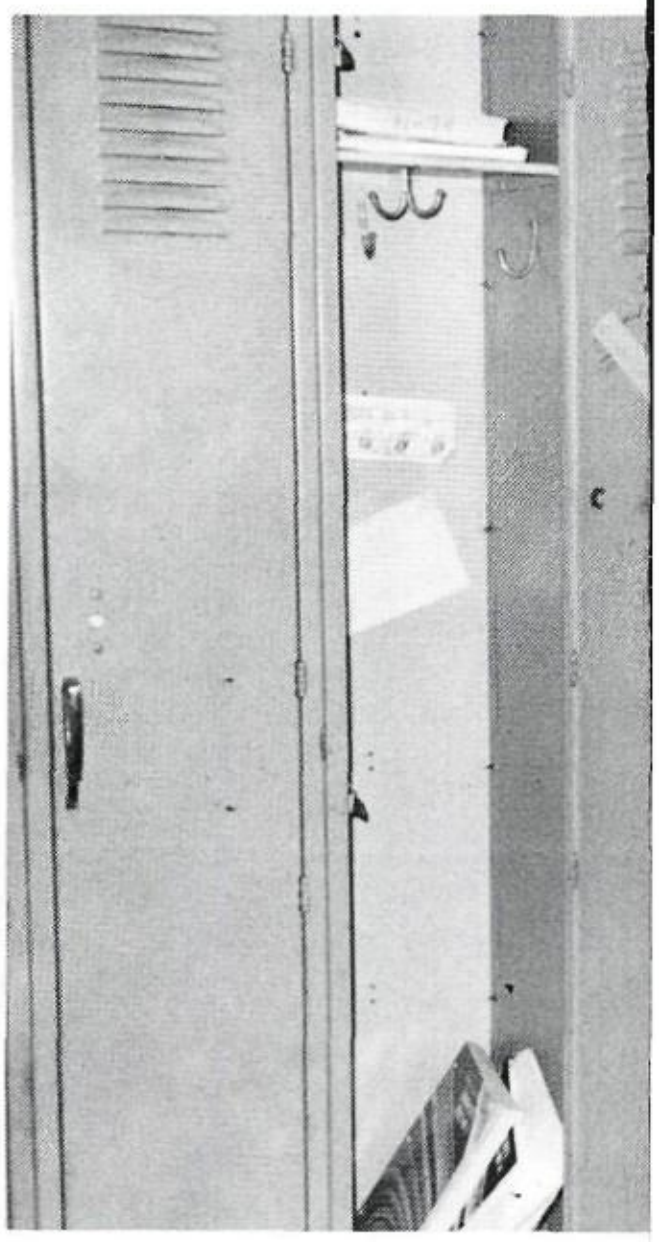
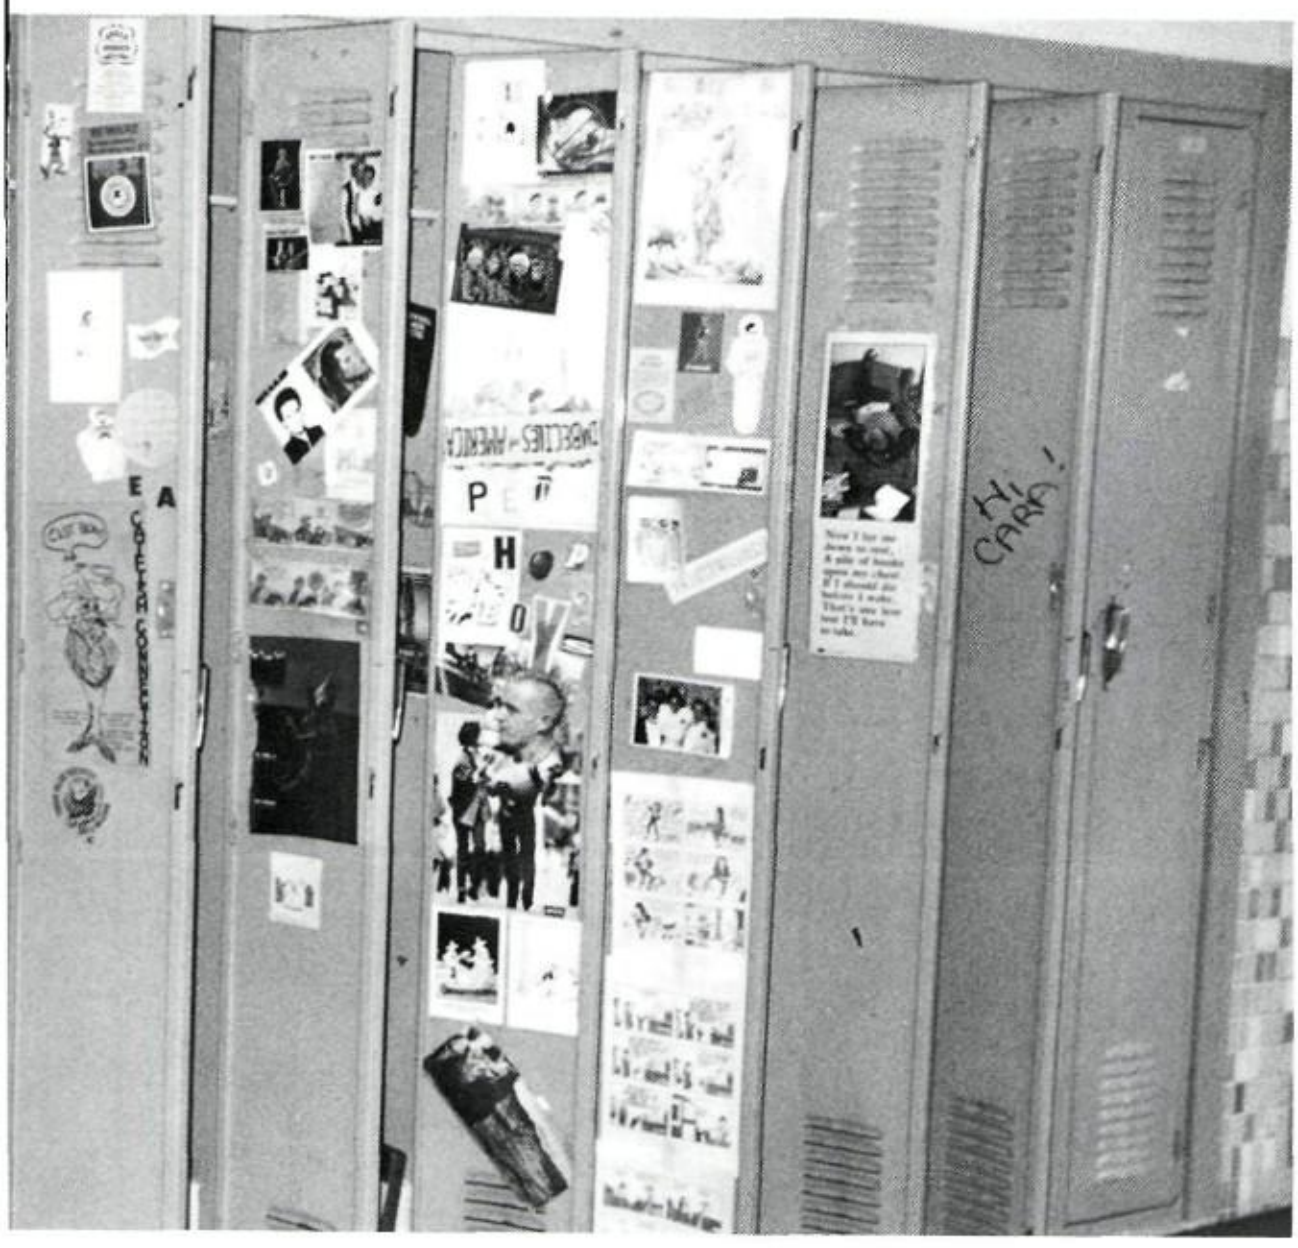
Academically Speaking

Computer keyboarding is a popular class among students who realize they are learning valuable skills for the future.

Academic contests can be tiring, as evidenced by the reactions of Bobby Stovall and Chris Daughtrey after a journalism competition in Norman.

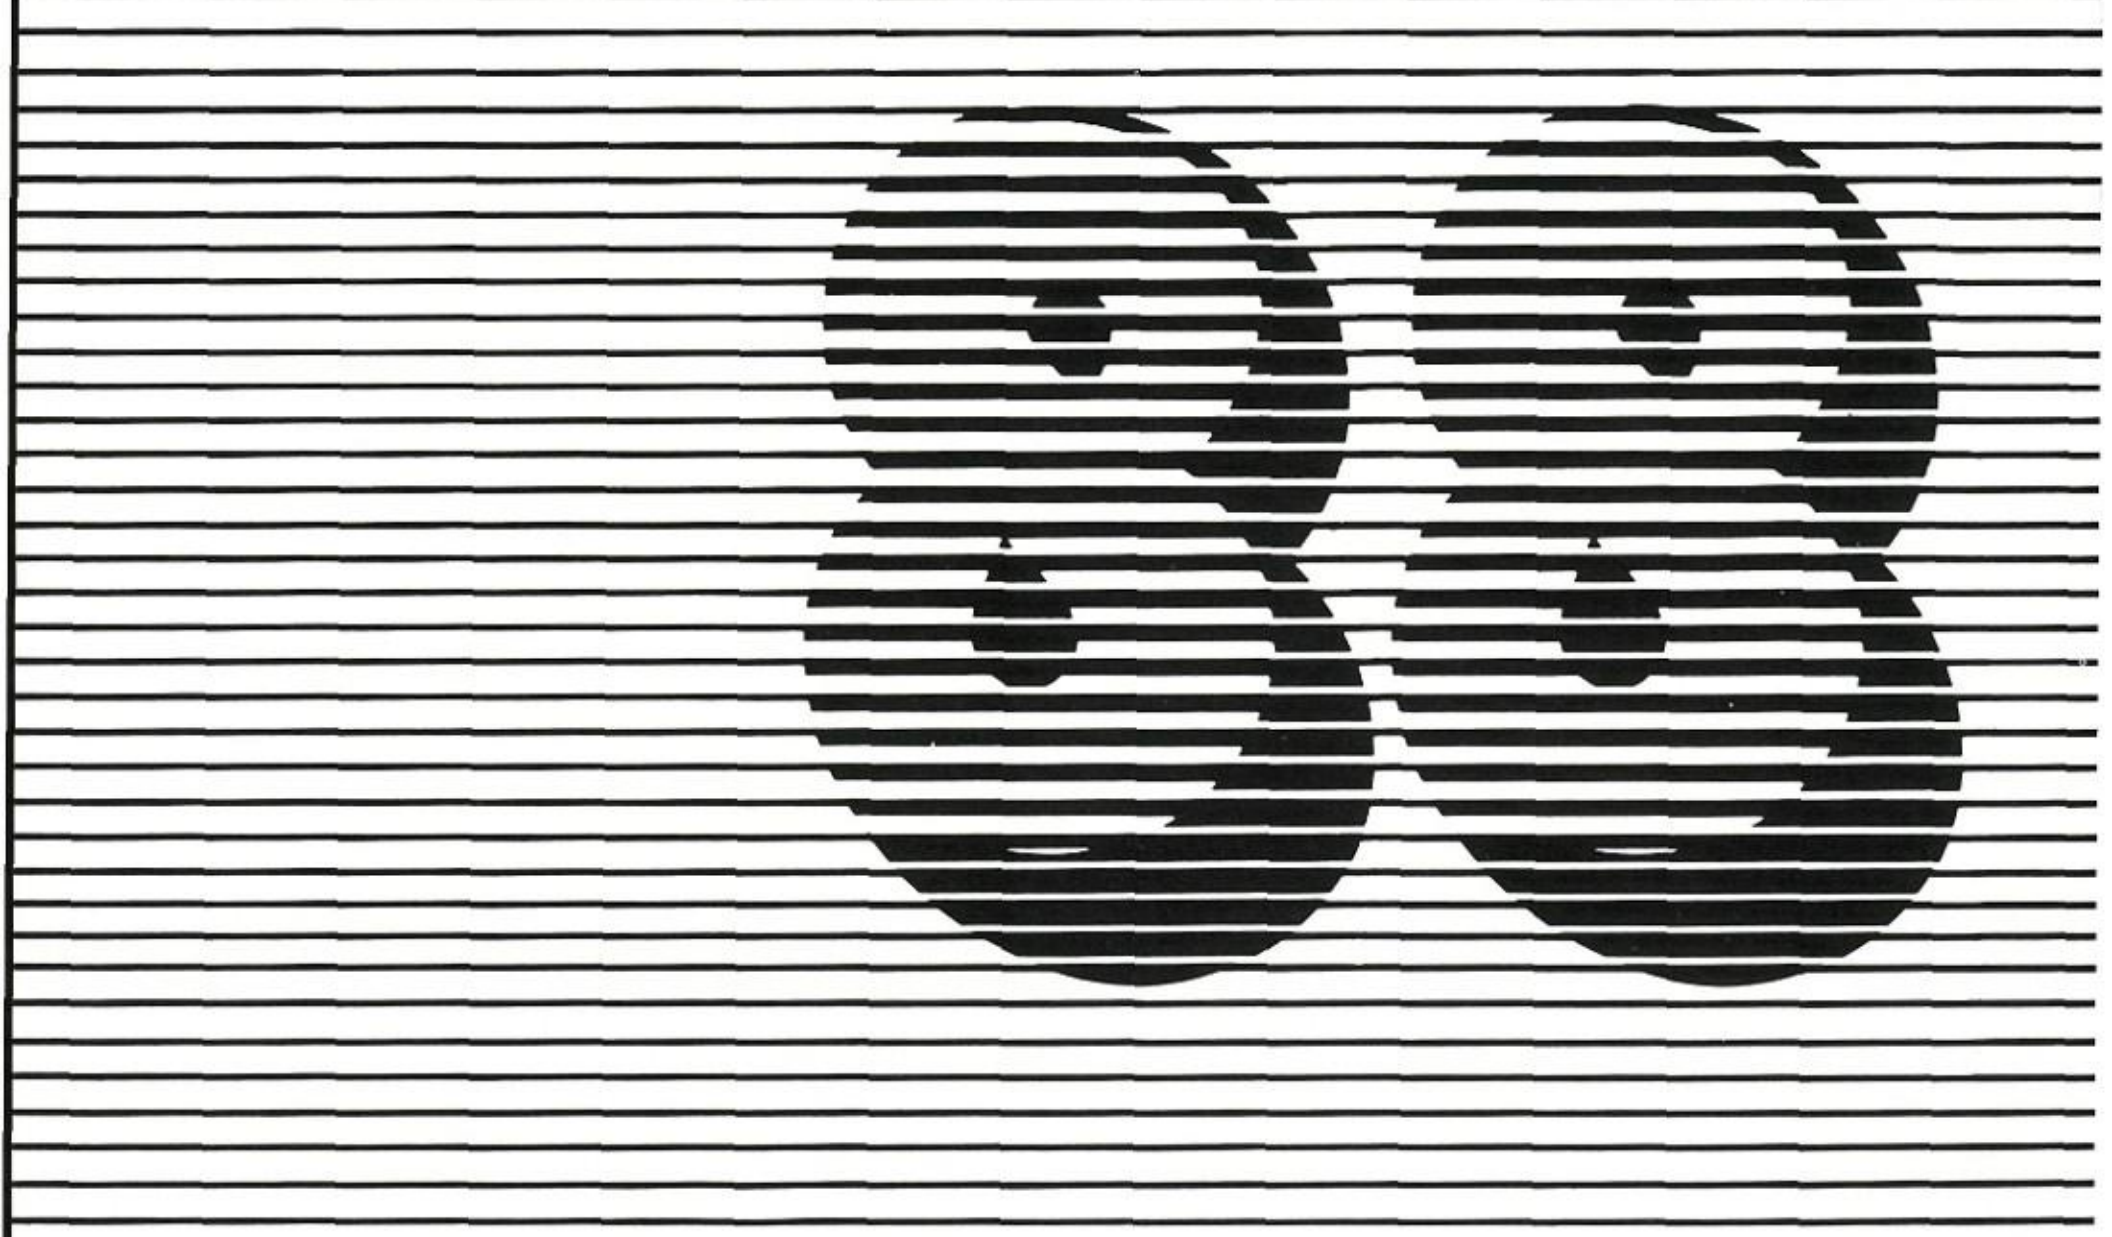


Visual aids capture the attention of Family Relations class members.



Personalized lockers are a popular way of making learning a bit more fun.

1987-88 Was Great!



ORGANIZATIONS

Band Takes State

The Demon Band entertained the student body and sports fans throughout the year. For the seventh year in a row, the band marched on to a superior rating in regional marching band contest. The DHS band was the only 4-A band in the State of Oklahoma to receive superior ratings from all three judges, in competition which was held at University of Oklahoma in Norman.

We've Got Spirit

The cheerleaders consist of a six-member freshmen squad and a twelve-member varsity squad. The varsity girls attended camp in Norman and were first runner up in the Award of Excellence. They participated in the Fall Fest and the opening of Wal-Mart. To boost the spirit of team members and fans, they made team favors, hung banners in the halls, made 2500 spirit towels and decorated the town before the playoff games.

Freshmen cheerleaders are Holly Stone, Krista Cox, Anne Green, Kelly Carr, Jennifer Jackson and Mary Hall.

Members of the varsity squad include (standing): Heather VanAlstine, Paula Cornwell, Amy Whitney, Stephanie Smith, Angie Reding and Tammy Dobbs, and (kneeling): Terri Travis, Melaina Freeman, Kristen Schreiner, Kara Doke, Tana Gibson and Sandie Sanders.

Time For A Little Sparkle

Sparklers were an important element to every football game. Each member practiced approximately fourteen hours every week during football season. They performed at every home game and pep rally and at most out of town games. They also attended Super Star Drill Team Camp in Tulsa during the summer. Every Friday the girls showed appreciation to faculty members with homemade treats in the lounge.

The drill team performs a Halloween routine during the Duncan vs. Ardmore pep rally.

Disguised as a pillow person, Michelle Sims, sophomore, dances at the homecoming pep rally.

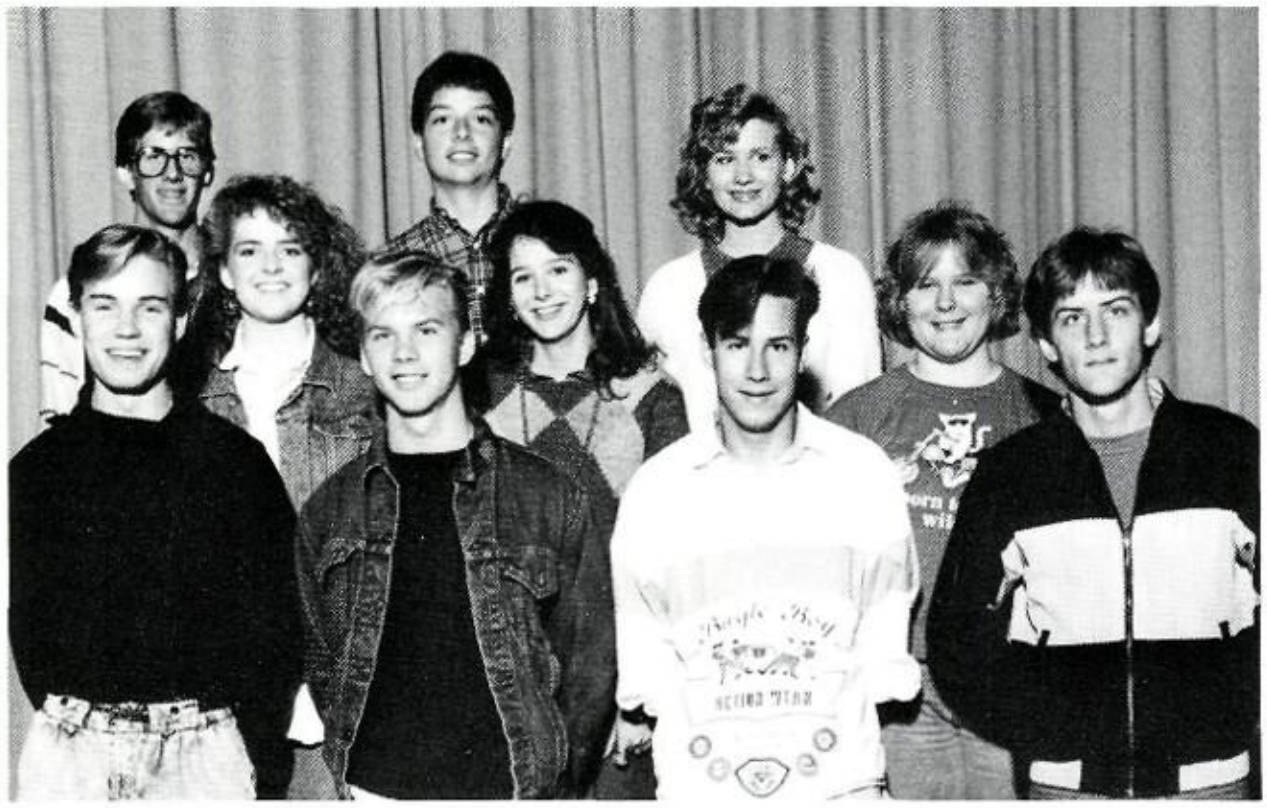
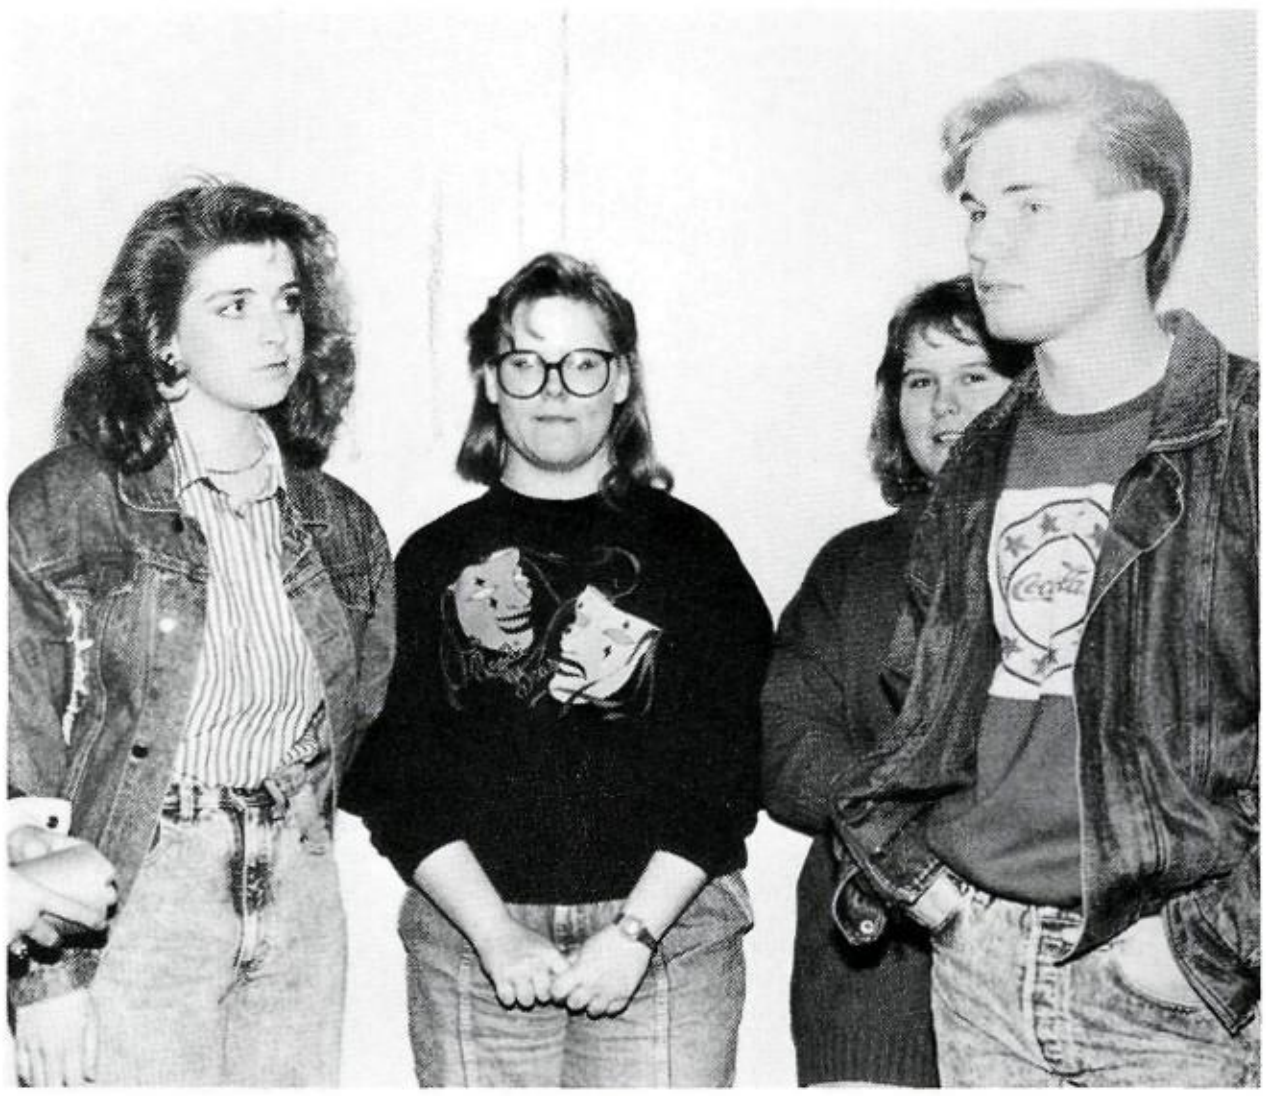
Creative Time For Writing

The Creative Writing Club, sponsored by Mrs. June Richardson, was a way for high school students to express their talents in writing. They met the first Thursday of every month and read various students submissions. Then they selected the best work for inclusion in "Writers Cramp," a student publication divided into several catagories including: poetry, short stories, essays, and science fiction.



Molly Eichler, sophomore, reads from a paper written during a creative writing meeting.

Members of Creative Writing, Angela Duncan, Molly Eichler, Reenie Eichler, and Mike Stuckert, discuss what to do for the next month.



Drama Has Its Act Together

It was a very busy year for the Drama Club. They performed various skits for the pep rallys, including a particularly memorable mock-buriel of a Chickasha Fighting Chick during homecoming festivities. The Fall dramatic production, a one-act play entitled A Christmas Cradle, was well received by the student body. The Spring production, You Can't Take it With You, was a three-act comedy concerning the antics of an eccentric family. Drama Club sponsor was Denise Hines.

Home And Family Is FHA Focus

Future Homemakers of America linked school to home and family life. The club leaders attended the Cluster meeting in Denver, Colorado, where they focused on the leadership skills. Active members attended state convention in April. To end the year, one or two officers attended the national convention in Cincinatti, Ohio during the month of July. Oklahoma had one of the largest delegations.

To improve health the FHA club exercises during a meeting. Leading aerobics are Christie Cox, junior, and seniors Stephanie Pruett and Jill Lang.

The Spanish Club sponsored a variety of projects during the year, including performing traditional dances for grade schoolers at Horace Mann in the Fall. They also welcomed a family from Argentina, teaching the children English and babysitting them every Monday. Their meetings were held the first Monday of every month. The Spanish Club Sponsor was Diane Battles.

The French Club and Spanish Club met jointly to celebrate Mardi Gras. The French Club had many activities throughout the year, such as T-shirt design contests and parties featuring different types of French food. At the end of the year the French Club awarded a senior with a scholarship.

Key Club Has Busy Year

Many of Key Club's various activities included attending weekly Kiwanis meetings every Tuesday, participation in the Kiddie Land activities, and numerous community events. Also weekly meetings were held every Wednesday morning. Events such as an Easter egg hunt were among other activities sponsored. All of these events required the volunteer work of its members. These activities kept the Key Club organization busy throughout the year. Key Club sponsor was Lynn Prickett.

Healthy Learning

The Health Careers Club met the first Tuesday of every month at Duncan Regional Hospital. During the meetings the members learned about the hospital's equipment, as well as hearing lectures from doctors and medical technicians. Tours educated the members on procedures followed by hospital members. The club sponsor was school nurse Yvonne Blackerby.

FFA Keeps Up-To-Date

Future Farmers of America allowed students to experience the occupation of farming firsthand. Members learned the latest farming techniques in raising animals and had the opportunity to show them in the district, county, and state stock shows. FFA also sponsored their rodeo in May as well as two banquets, including the annual parent-member banquet in the Spring.

Busy Times For FBLA

Future Business Leaders of America was organized to promote an interest in the business world. This year the members worked diligently to prepare a Campaign for the office of State Vice-President. Some members attended the State Conference that was held in Oklahoma City, April 17, 18, and 19th. Meetings were comprised of a variety of activities, ranging from guest speakers to a tour of the Stephens County Courthouse.

Speaking about his career as a local community leader is mayor Doug Nix.

President Michael Sparks, junior, brings the meeting to order. He also is running for state vice president.

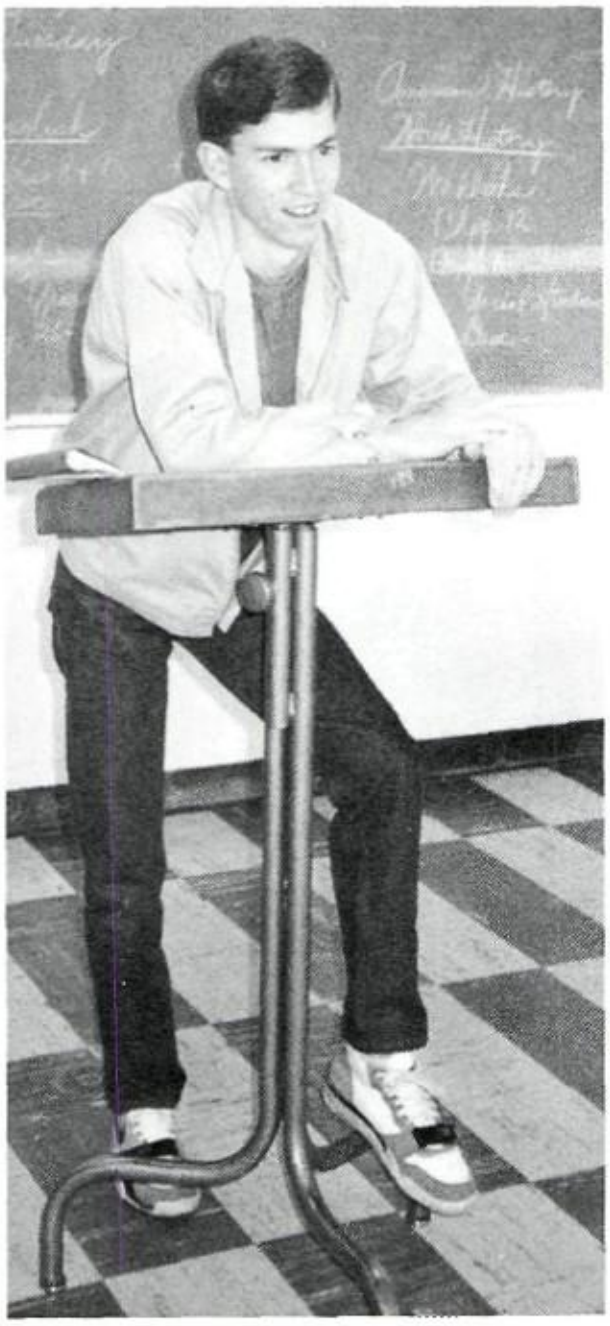
SADD For Safety

President Tod Bower, senior, reports the upcoming events.



The members of Students Against Drunk Driving-put up safety posters before the prom. Every student received SADD contracts for themselves and their parents. Members went one step further and spoke to junior high students in their science classes. SADD also presented an assembly for the students at the junior high on the dangers of drunk driving.

Members of SADD discuss the movie selection for the junior high assembly.

NHS Adds 42 New Members

The National Honor Society sponsored many activities throughout the year. As a service project for the school, they cleaned the campus, including the school windows and classroom chalkboards. They sold mums for Homecoming and for new members conducted installation ceremonies in the Spring. National Honor Society sponsor was Marion Nottingham.

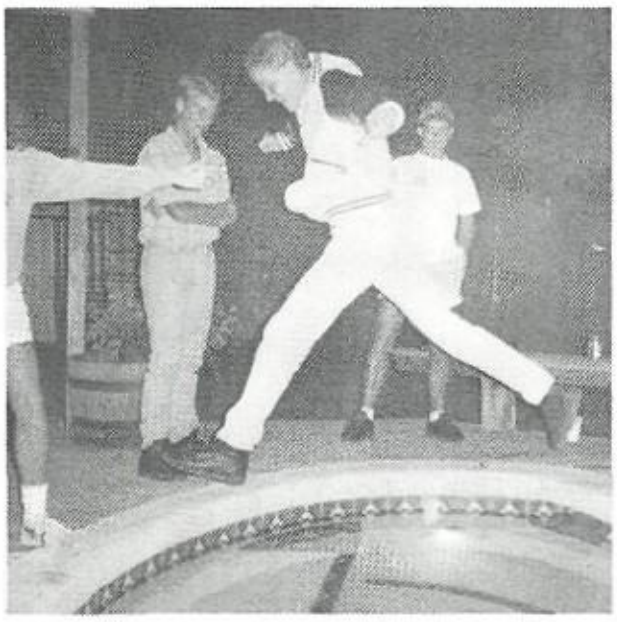
Sharing The Victory With FCA

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes allowed athletes or anyone interested in athletic competition to attend meetings, where they enjoyed speakers, fellowship and refreshments. National membership was optional to everyone. Meetings were held either in the homes of members or at various churches. Every other week, boys and girls groups met together for special activities, with separate huddles held in the weeks in between.

Kicking off the new year, FCA mixes business with pleasure during the first joint meeting.



Able to leap hot tubs in a single bound, Steve Hale, senior, shows his enthusiasm for FCA.

Great Times With DECA!

Throughout the year DECA members attended and sponsored various activities, which included the Employee-Employer Banquet, two conference meetings, and a fashion show. The conference meetings were attended by outstanding students in the Marketing Education classes. There are 46 students in Marketing Education and 35 of the students work in the community.

Looking Back On . . .

In the six years since Americans first heard of a mysterious immunity-robbing disease from which no one recovers, AIDS has killed nearly 25,000 Americans, millions of dollars have poured into medical research and President Reagan has proclaimed the plague "Public Health Enemy No. 1."

Celebrating the first World Series title in the club's history are Minnesota Twins outfielder, Kirby Puckett, and pitcher, Jeff Reardon.

The Dow Jones Industrial stock average dropped 508 points, the largest in history, on Monday, October 19. Some called it a "crash," others called it a meltdown and others called it "Black Monday." Whatever it was, it stripped $500 billion from the market value of U.S. securities.

Washington Redskins quarterback Doug Williams grimaces as he hits the ground in the second quarter of Super Bowl XXII in San Diego. Williams went on to lead the Redskins to a 42-10 victory over the Denver Broncos, scoring a record 35 of those points in the second quarter.

A Special Year

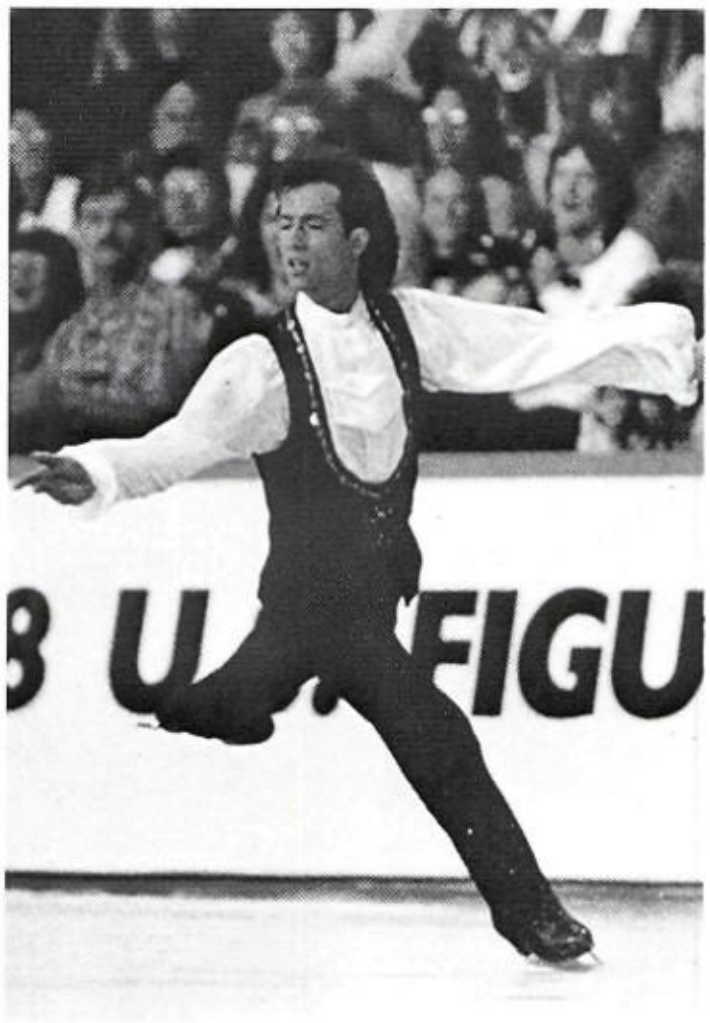
Television evangelists Jim and Tammy Baker said farewell to the PTL ministry in March after Jim resigned when confessing to a sexual encounter.

President Reagan talked with Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev during the arrival at the White House for the summit meetings.

A 24-day strike by the NFL players ended in mid-October when the union capitulated and went to court instead of fighting the club.

Saluting to the flag is Bonnie Blair of the U.S. She won the Gold Medal for the Women's 500 meter speed skating and set a new world record, at Calgary, Alberta, Canada.

President and Mrs. Reagan greeted Pope John Paul II when he arrived in Miami to begin a tour of the United States.

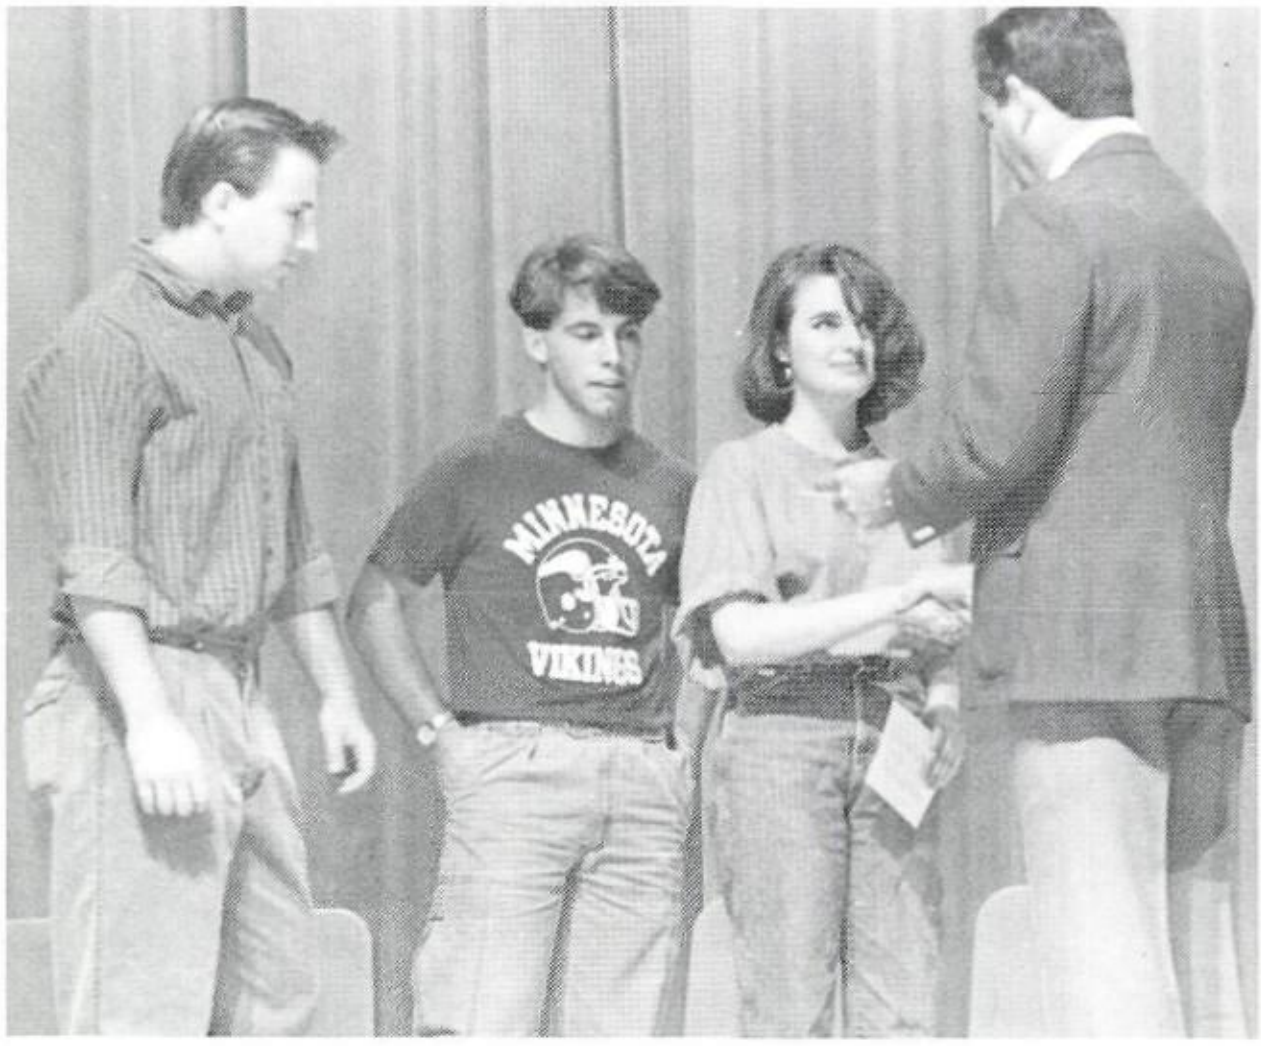


U.S. Olympian Brian Boitano skated to the music - with which he won the Gold Medal.

Special Recognition

The awards assembly was a way of recognizing students for their outstanding achievements throughout the year. Many of the school departments and community organizations were represented at the assembly. The high point of the assembly was when the Crossman Award winner was announced.

Seniors Sean Porterfield, Lance Davison, and Cindy Davenport receive an award from Mr. David.



A congratulatory kiss from escort, senior Michael Sims, is bestowed upon Key Club Sweetheart of the Year, senior Paula Cornwell.

The Donny Christian Music Awards were presented to seniors, Kevin Rogers and Sheree Clanton. Mrs. Sykes presented the awards.

Senior Michael Brown presents Mr. David with the senior gift of library equipment to the school.

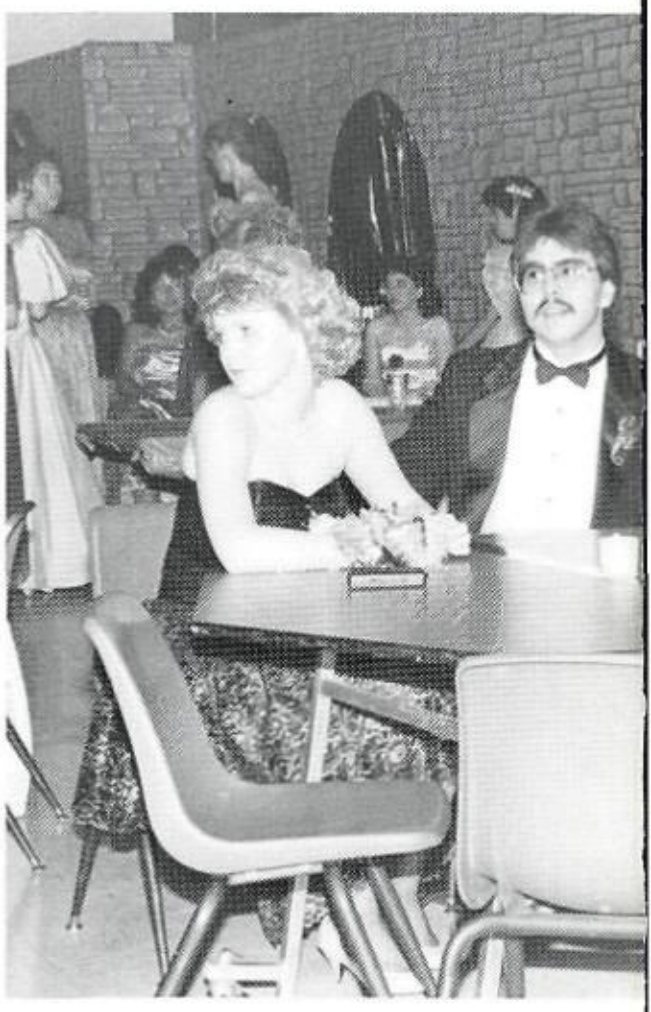
Presenting the AAUW Oustanding Senior Girl Award is Miss Rita Arze. Senior Kim Morgan is the recipient.

Seniors Bubba Miller, Sally Hollingsworth, and Michael Brown present Mrs. June Richardson, the senior sponsor, with a gift of appreciation.

A Start Of A New Beginning

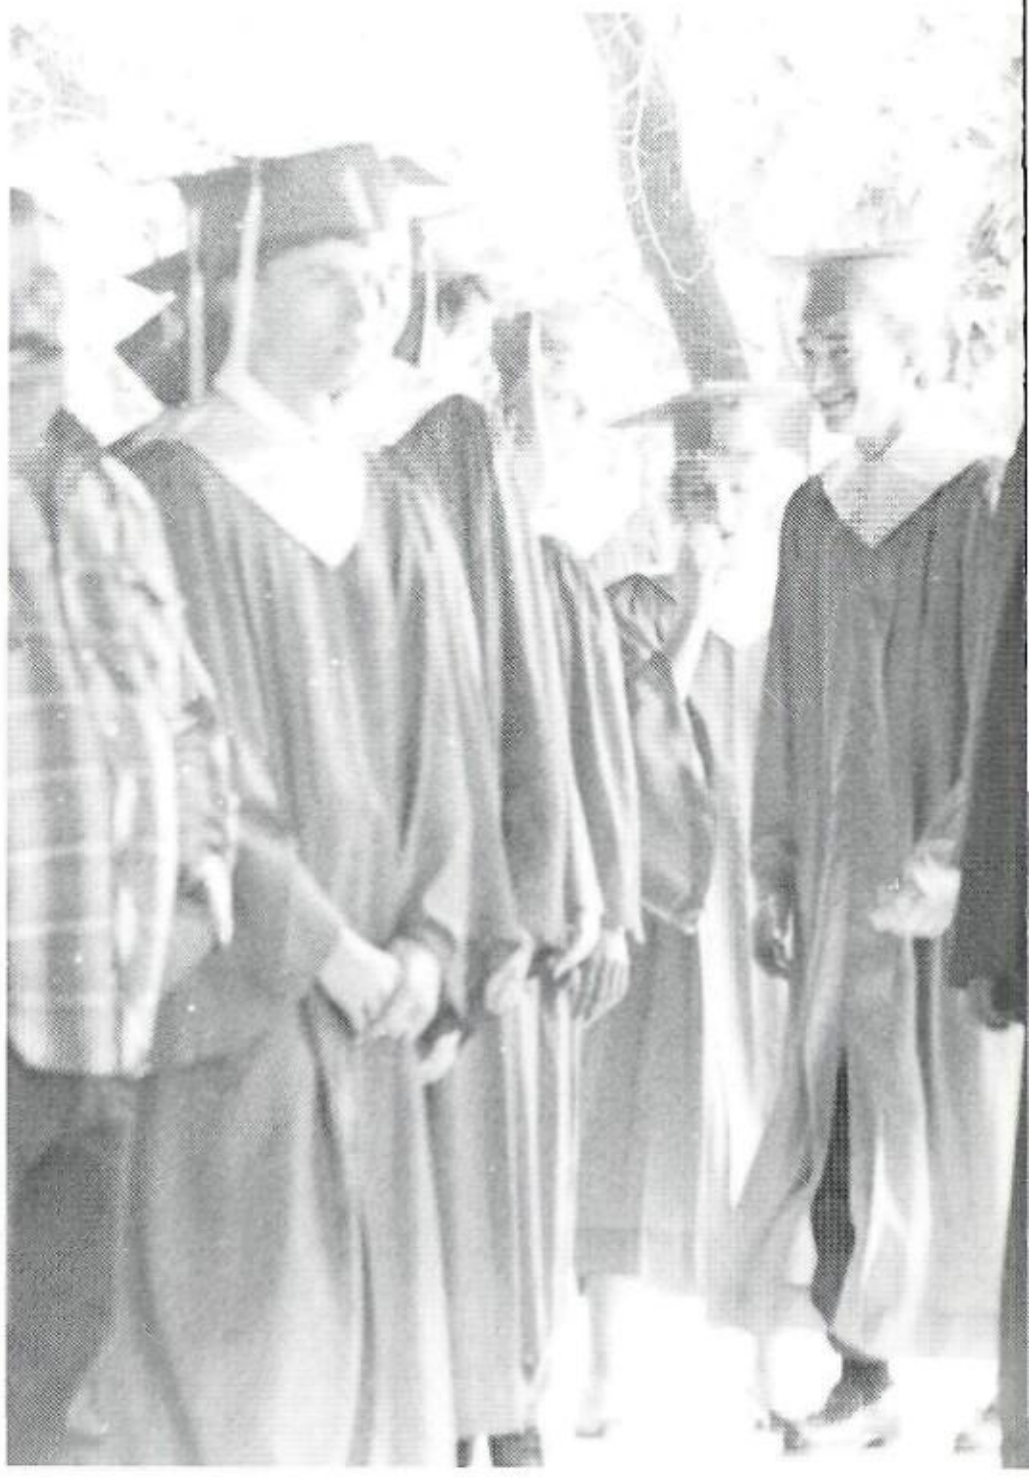
The 1988 school year was an exciting year for everyone. The sports were thrilling and the activities were fun. "A Night In Venice" was a success for the Junior Class, and the seniors hit it off with the Mother's Day skit, Guest Day dinner, Baccalaureate and Graduation. With the students well represented at the awards and scholarship assemblies, the year ended well — with a great Senior Class of 1988!

FFA members clown around with local grade schoolers.

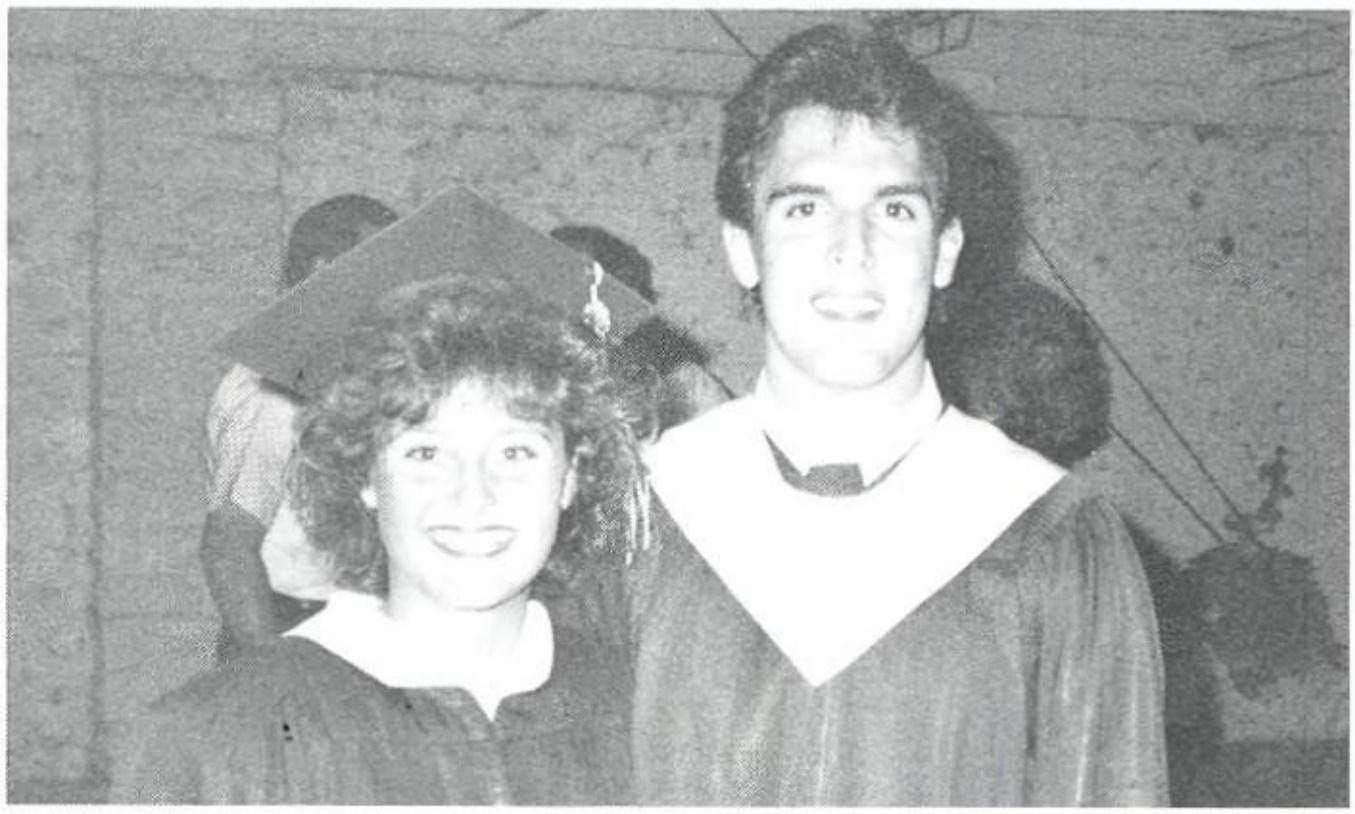


Couples enjoy refreshments while listening to the Blades at the prom.

Having punch at the AAUW Tea are seniors Stacey Sykes, Regina Vaughn, and Shannon Glover.



Waiting eagerly for Baccalaureate services to begin are anxious seniors.



Outstanding senior Girl and Boy for 1987-88 are Pam Schmidt and Eric Newberry.

Sophomores, Carey Murdock and Eric Smith, perform in their band during the talent show.
